

U. S. DELEGATES LEAVE

LINDY WILL BE FORCED TO REFUSE ANOTHER STATUE

(Special To The News)
NEWTON, Kan., Jan. 9.—
That royal wedding in Rome

neither one had much choice of selection, unless they married outside royalty.
If you think that wedding attracted a lot of attention, you wait till
one of Mussolini's sons marries one of Ramsay Macdonald's daughters.

They offered Babe Ruth the same salary
that Mr. Hoover gets. Babe claims he should have more. He can't appoint a commission to go up and knock the home runs,
he has to do it all himself.

Lindbergh refused the St.
Louis statue, now the whole world will force one on him, not for flying the ocean, but for being the first man that ever refused a statue.

WILL.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Descendants of American Revolution forefathers meet here in annual reunion tomorrow night, the occasion being the annual banquet of the New Castle chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution. The organization assemblies but once a year.

For three days in succession now,
the maximum temperature has stood at 58 degrees, which is quite unusual for this time of the year. However, it had gotten down to 34 this morning and may hover around that figure or drop lower during the day.

Some of the autos coming into New Castle from the rural districts indicate that some of the roads are nearly without any bottom, these days. Pa New saw one car yesterday that was literally covered with mud.

Cold weather that was scheduled for this district must have got side-tracked. Rain continues this morning, without much show of a change in temperature.

Up at the senior high school on Lincoln avenue, a class is preparing for graduation, the mid year commencement coming during the present month. While mid-year graduation lacks a lot of the traditional flavor of the early June program, yet the classes have completed the same course, and the commencement is just as important as that in the spring.

Some of the spectacular rural mail box posts in this county will have to be removed. Postmaster General Brown has ruled that the figure of one Sam as a pedestal for rural mail boxes is not to be allowed. An amendment to postal regulations provides that all rural mail boxes shall be neat in appearance, and may be of wood, metal or concrete, but they must not be supported by effigies intended to represent figures or mechanical objects.

Heard a young lady say, "The reason the alarm clock didn't wake me this morning was because it synchronized nicely with my dream. The ringing of the bell just fitted in and all seemed just as it should be. So I didn't get up."

Saw this sign on the back of a big moving van—"Sound your horn. We will gladly move to the right."

The 1930 drivers license cards are now arriving by the mail. The price is two dollars instead of one, as formerly, but they look about the same.

Mystery Fires In Croton Home Are Continued

Investigation Is Under Way
By Fire Authorities;
Result Of Blazes

Mysterious fires which occurred in the double brick house owned by Michael Jacobone at 404 and 404 1-2 North Cascade street, on Tuesday evening, were continued under similar circumstances last night, and approximately at the same hour.

Fire Chief Lynn is of the opinion that the fires have been started by a member of the Pietrelli family, which occupies one side of the house, and the suspected party is being kept under surveillance.

Firemen were called to the home at 8:25 last evening, when Mr. Pietrelli, after rocking the baby to sleep, went into the front room of the house to lay the baby on the bed and found the bed afire. He alarmed other members of the household and they dashed water on the fire. Neighbors called the firemen.

After the department had arrived and assisted in putting out the blaze, they heard a scream from the other side of the house. Mr. and Mrs.
Jacobone and found that a curtain had been set afire. Mr. and Mrs.
Jacobone pulled the curtain down and extinguished the blaze.

After the firemen had left, another fire was discovered in a clothes closet on the second floor, which did not

Death Claims Edward W. Bok

Noted Philadelphia Editor And Publisher Dies Of Heart Attack In Florida

CAME FROM HOLLAND
AS IMMIGRANT BOY

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—Edward W. Bok, philanthropist and noted Philadelphia editor and publisher, died today at Lake Wales, Fla., according to word received here by Cyrus H. K. Curtis, his father-in-law. He was 67 years old.

Mr. Bok was stricken with a sudden heart malady on Sunday and his condition immediately became so critical that New York specialists were summoned.

His sons and other relatives were on their way to Florida when word of the publisher's death was received here.

He was seized with the fatal attack
shortly after he arrived in Florida, where the author planned a long vacation.

Created Peace Award.
Mr. Bok was for many years editor of a Woman's Journal. In 1928 he became widely known when he created the $100,000 American peace award. He was the author of several books.

The most widely known of his works was the Americanization of Edward Bok, in which he told in an enchanting manner his early struggles in this country on the road to fame and fortune.

He maintained a residence at Meridon, Pa., and his winter home was at Lake Wales where he died.

W. Curtis Bok, an assistant district attorney here and son of the noted philanthropist was first appar-ented that his father had been stricken by a long distance call Tuesday night to his home at Bryn Mawr. He and Mrs. Bok hurriedly left for Florida. At the same time noted heart specialists were summoned but Mr. Bok died before they could reach him.

Came From Holland.
Mr. Curtis, his business associate and father-in-law was notified.
It was not until late last night however that the gravity of Mr. Bok's condition was realized.

Word of Mr. Bok's death revealed that he came to this country from Holland 61 years ago a penniless immigrant boy.

He achieved a rapid rise to fame
and wealth.
During the past several years he has brought into being the Philadelphia award, the Citizens award, the American peace award the Harvard advertising award and also founded the Philadelphia forum, the Wilson

Open Hearings On Prohi-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The national law enforcement commission faced stormy seas today
as demands upon the commission to discontinue "star chamber" proceedings and hold open hearings on the prohibition question spread to both branches of Congress.

Pressure for public hearings has increased rather than subsided in the face of the promise of Chairman George W. Wickersham to submit an early report of the commission's activities to Congress.

Commission Split
Declarations by members of Congress that the commission is split upon the crime question, particularly upon prohibition, also served to intensify the situation which promises to make the commission appointed by President Hoover a subject of controversy rather than an aid in the settlement of the whole crime question.

Sen. William J. Harris (D) of Georgia, a bone dry, announced he is preparing to carry the fight for open hearings to the floor of the Senate.

"Unless the commission changes its policy," the Georgian said, "I shall offer an amendment providing that no part of the $250,000 appropriation voted by Congress for this commission may be used for the purpose of carrying its work unless hearings are opened to the public."

Want Open Sessions
"No harm can come from open hearings. The proceedings will not lose force. I believe, of course, there necessarily would be some executive meetings, but the general hearings should be public."

Sen. Borah (R) of Idaho, who touched off the prohibition oratorical bomb that has rocked official Washington for the past two weeks, may join the Harris cause.

"I favor open hearings," said Sen.
Borah. "I think we can get open hearings. I might be willing to go along with such a proposal as that

Appeal Taken In Dean Will Case

Heirs Will Contest Decision
Which Gives Jane Ligo
Bulk Of Dean Estate

An appeal to the supreme court has been taken by the plaintiff in the case of Ida B. Dodson and others against Miss Jane Ligo in a controversy over the will of the late Nellie Dean. This case was twice tried before Judge Chambers and his been in litigation for some time.

Under the alleged will which was offered for probate the bulk of the Nellie Dean estate was left to Miss Jane Ligo, who was nurse and companion of Mrs. Dean. Heirs of Mrs.
Dean attacked the alleged will at the first trial of the case and won a verdict.

At the second trial of the case the verdict was won by Miss Jane Ligo.
Application was made for another trial which the local court refused.
It is upon this decision that the case is being taken to the supreme court in their effort to get another trial of the case.

Prince And Bride Delay Honeymoon

ROME, Jan. 9.—In lieu of an immediate honeymoon, Crown Prince Humbert and his bride of a day, the Princess of Piedmont, today reviewed an elaborate display of Italy's fighting strength in company with their respective fathers, the sovereigns of Italy and Belgium, and other members of the two royal families.

Owing to the pressure of official functions at which they must be present, Prince Humbert and Princess Marie José will not start on their wedding trip until Saturday. It is expected they will spend part of their honeymoon in San Rossore, near Pisa, where a royal hunting lodge is located.

Taking up her official duties in her new role as wife of Italy's Crown Prince for the first time, the Princess made a gracious picture of regal beauty as she sat in the reviewing stand at the former Paroli race-track and acknowledged the salutes of 20-000 picked troops who tramped by before the rulers of two countries and their families.

Every branch of Italy's land forces,
the Italian Marine Corps and Italian Colonial troops was represented in the

Will Bar Public In Baker Trial

Camden County Officials Announce No Spectators Will Be Allowed In Court

TRIAL TO START ON NEXT MONDAY

(International News Service)
CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 9.—The public will be barred from the trial of Gladys Mary Parks Baker, ex-cabaret entertainer when she goes on trial here next Monday for the murder of Dorothy and Timothy Rogers, children of a Woodbury insurance agent.

An announcement to this effect was made today by Camden county officials.

The trial will be conducted by Justice Frank T. Lloyd, who is now enroute here by airplane from California in an attempt to reach here by the time the case is scheduled to start.

Justice Lloyd issued the orders barring the public from the trial in order he said "to prevent the case from becoming a travesty on justice."

The criminal court room where the case is to be tried will only accommodate 150 persons.

Special telephones and telegraph wires have been installed in the tiny room sufficient for 15 newspapermen.
Fifteen additional courthouse guards have been sworn in to aid in handling the expected crowds.

Erie Man Elected Zem Zem Potentate

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Jan. 9.—J. Orin Waite, Erie, today is the illustrious potentate of Zem Zem Temple of the Shriners, following the election held at a meeting of the shrine here last night.
More than 1,500 members and guests from nearby temples were present for the gathering.

Other officers elected include Jas.
Russell, Chief Rabbani; J. Orin Waite, Graham, Assistant Rabbani; Elmer L.
Evans, High Priest and Prophet; E.
P. Bradford, Treasurer and R. L.
Rodgers, Recorder. Donald W. Mackenzie of Bradford Pa., was elected Oriental Guard. The other officers are Erie men.

Arthur W. Milne and J. Orin Waite both of Erie, Merrill Davis of Bradford and W. F. Bennett of Warren Pa., were named as representatives to the Imperial council.

No new clues are reported in the past 24 hours by the police authorities in the search for Irene Schroeder, alleged killer of Corporal Brady Paul, and the two men who as supposed to have been with her, W. Glenn Dague and Tom Crawford.

The report that little Donnie
Schroeder had said that his mother was not a blonde, but had black hair is untrue. In answer to some questions concerning the color of his mother's hair the little fellow said that it was "white". A youngster of his size would probably indicate any light colored hair as "white" and this bears out the idea that she is a blonde.

While there is no report of progress upon the part of the state police, it is known that a large corps of men is working on the case in this state and in Ohio and West Virginia.

Naval Delegates Are Sailing For Conference Today

American Delegates To Lon-

On Historic Mission

UNCERTAINTY FOR MISSION IS SEEN

Delegates Hope To Return In Spring With New Pact
For World Peace

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—
The American delegates to the London naval conference sail for England today on an historic mission.

They hope to return in the spring or early summer with an agreement between the five great naval powers which will not only stop competitive building in all classes of warships, but provide as well for actual reduction of tonnage now afloat. That is the hope—but between the hope and the realization lie many weeks of hard, grubbing work, and perhaps some spirited if not acrimonious negotiation.

On George Washington

The delegation sails on the S. S.
George Washington, a vessel that has played a conspicuous part in American post-war diplomacy. It was the George Washington upon which Woodrow Wilson set sail so confidently for the Versailles conference ten years ago. It was the same vessel which he hurriedly called to France
at a critical juncture in that conference when events were going badly for him and he had threatened to quit it.

It was impossible for the war-time president to foresee what was ahead of him at Versailles and, similarly,
the departing arms conference delegates today were making no predictions of what will eventuate in London. They have high hopes of success, and are prepared to labor long and earnestly for it. But they are also impressed with the manifold difficulties of the task that lies ahead of them.

Their departure today marks the fruition of many months of diligent preparation and exchange of views —preliminary planning that even went so far as to impel a British prime minister to shatter the precedent of all time and cross the Atlantic in quest of an amicable understanding with the United States, with naval parity as its basis.

Conditions Changed
In this mission he was successful, and the American delegates to the forthcoming naval conference set sail today under far different conditions than obtained two years ago.
At Geneva two years ago, it was British-American differences that led to a semi-violent break-up of President Coolidge's effort to obtain firmness in naval matters.

Today, however, substantial agreement already exists between the two English-speaking nations on the broad principles of naval limitation. There is still a slight difference between them over the cruiser question, but it amounts to only three ships involving some 30,000 tons, and on one anticipates that any insuperable difficulties will be encountered in adjusting this.

The danger points of the forthcoming conference, and they admittedly are numerous, lie elsewhere—with France, who is still smarting under what she conceives to have been niggardly treatment at the Washington

(International News Service)
FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Jan. 9.—With the weather showing some indication of clearing, it was hoped here today that it would be possible to begin an aerial search for Capt. "Pat" Reid and his two mechanics, William Hughes and James Hutchinson.

The three airmen have been missing since Saturday after hopping off from here for Nome, where they were to start a search for Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland, who have been lost since November 9.

While storms held planes on the ground here, at Nulato and Nome, a search for the trio by dog team was started at Unalakleet. This hunt will be conducted along the Unalakleet and Ungalik rivers.

Mrs. Emma Moncrief, 82, 822 Car-

The window shows a sunny land, with fronds of palms about, and sunshine kissing everything, and lovely blossoms out. There is a harbor just beyond, where ships lie at ease,
while all the crews are eating fruit,
beneath some tropic trees. The pictures hold me as I pass, with tales of sunny isles, where nature is in balm mood and daily shows her smiles. Where is this land they picture me, where everything is bright where man can loaf as he surveys the wonders in his sight. It lies away beyond the sea, the fare is out in hail,
but as I read the prices there, I get a hearty laugh. For if I visited the place, before the trip was through,
'twould cost me time and lots of dough, the weather's forty-two.

Section G, with Mrs. J. D. Heminger as leader, served a delicious repast at the close of the evening.

REWARD FOR THE FOOL-PROOF AIRPLANE

IT IS not the fact that only one airplane fulfilled the test qualifications of the safety and efficiency competition sponsored by the Daniel Guggenheim Fund, but that any plane was able to meet them, that should be cited as an extraordinary record of aviation in

The Curtiss Tanager is a conventional type plane presenting no radical departures from the design or trend of general development typical of modern aviation. It embodies in its structure a number of special devices that long since have proved their safety value. But in the synthesis of all these special features into a single plane, Robert R. Osborne, the young project engineer of the Curtiss Company, who originated the Tanager, achieved a triumph as remarkable as if he had given us a machine based upon an entirely new principle of aero dynamics.

Here are some of the things required of the plane under the terms of the Guggenheim $100,000 prize contest: Take off and land on a plot 500 feet square surrounded by a 25-foot obstruction; maintain level flight at a speed of 35 miles an hour; glide for three minutes with all power shut off at a time when the speed was not greater than 38 miles an hour; take off within 300 feet and clear a 35-foot obstruction with 500 feet of starting point;
fly for five minutes without control to demonstrate self-righting ability; plane to be proven fool-proof and free from all tendency to nose-dive in case of accident.

Aviators who heard the terms of the Guggenheim competition a year ago said no plane could meet them; yet engineers of airplane corporations in this country and abroad immediately set themselves to produce such a craft. It is a proud fact that an American corporation and an American designer was the winner.
He is accused of incorporating in the plane a number of foreign inventions. Well, what if he did? His success, and certainly the value of his product to world aviation, lies in its projection to greater heights of service of the sum of aviation achievement rather than in a radical departure from the lessons of experience.

NO CAUSE FOR WORRY

There is always more or less worry connected with money. Those of us who do not have it worry about getting it, and those of us who have it are often put to a great deal of worry in hanging on to it. In addition to this little worry is brought on by the desire to make a jiney grow where only a penny grew before. It seems as though poets and philosophers have conspired to bring money into disrepute, so anxious are they to tell us that the mere possession of it is a great burden.

In more recent times there has come to us the warning that money carries germs. Germ experts even went so far as to demonstrate that a bank clerk's occupation was particularly hazardous because he handles so much money. But now this dread has been dispelled. After exhaustive investigation on the subject of money as germ carriers two Illinois University experts assure us that this danger has been greatly exaggerated. It seems that the materials or metals from which coins are made act as destroyers of bacteria.

This relieves us of the worry connected with the handling of money.
The next thing for some expert to do is to tell us how we may be relieved of our worries in trying to get hold of it.

LIFE IN THE COUNTRY

Considerable discussion is heard these days as to the means that may be adopted to keep folks on the farm. The situation has become serious for many experienced farmers are moving into the cities, either for the purpose of earning what they consider easier money, or to use their savings in giving their children and themselves the advantage of city life. Whatever the cause, the situation remains, and it constitutes a problem that may well engage the attention of national and state authorities. The fear is expressed that the production of food may become reduced to such an extent that scarcity will not only greatly increase prices, but threaten the welfare of the people.

While the reasoning is purely academic and subject to the views of each individual it is probably true that the persons who make occasional trips from the rural districts to the larger towns enjoy these visits and the things they see much more than those who see them every day. It is a case where familiarity sometimes breeds contempt. In the matter of better school facilities in the towns, there is in most cases no place for argument, although some progress has been made in a number of states to bring about a centralization of teaching that gives country pupils some of the advantages of the city in a course of study.

There is nothing to justify undue pressure to keep men and women and boys and girls on the farms. Rural life should be so attractive in itself that enough persons will make choice of the country life to insure the crops of grain and quantities of other foodstuffs needed to maintain all the people at a reasonable cost.

THEY ARE PROFESSIONALS

With every winter when men are out of work one hears the explanation that most of the crimes of holdups and burglaries are done by the "unemployed," men who in desperation turn to that extreme method of gaining support for themselves or families.

It is time to refute this libel that hundreds of industrious citizens are living so near the border line that the least hardship in their lives is sufficient to convert them into criminals. The truth is quite the reverse of this.
Millions of good citizens will endure the pinch of adversity in patience and fortitude rather than resort to law breaking to improve their fortune.

An examination of the police records of our own city proves the truth of this conclusion. Of twenty-five young men arrested within the month upon charges of burglary or banditry only one pleaded the excuse that he was out of work and destitute. Even in this exceptional case the story was suspected of being an invention to gain the sympathy of the police and courts. The others were of the class who professed to despise honest work.
They had made no effort to find employment. Some of them came here recently from other places, attracted not by the hope of getting a job but because they thought this would be a good field in which to help themselves to the property of others.—The Akron Beacon Journal.

The man who talks to himself wants to hear something he can believe.

Shock absorbers on autos would be better if the driver could wear them.

Sometimes a man finds he can't make ends meet because they are loose ends.

With so many other things to worry about some men insist on wondering if their hair is combed.

Zogu In Trouble.

Shooting Indispensable.

Farewell, Charley Boston.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE (Copyright, 1929, King Features Syn., Inc.)

Belgrade hears of revolution in Albania, aimed at King Ahmed Ben Zogu, who has been trying to west-ernize Albania, giving a small limitation of Peter the Great.

Albanians don't want to be westernized, they are attached to the ancient habits, which include hunting strangers with big bear hounds.

The Balkan region is to revolutions what a well-managed incubator is to chickens. They appear quite often and represent one of many European theaters of war.

How amusing it would be, after we get into the World Court, and slip gradually into the League of Nations, if the usual Balkan war should break out and Uncle Sam were told
"You are rich and haven't lost many men. Go over, supply men and money to deal with this problem."

Congressman Beedy, of Maine, anciently dry, called forth applause in the House of Representatives yesterday, telling congressmen the coast guard must shoot or "we must wipe the Eighteenth Amendment off the statute book."

Congressman La Guardia, from New York, told the house that transferring prohibition enforcement from the treasury to the department of justice would ruin that department.
"Just as the coast guard has been corrupted by bribery."

It is a difficult prohibition problem, but American intelligence will find a way to solve it.

One thing is certain, prohibition is NOT coming out of the constitution.

New York's Chinatown will bury Charley Boston, now lying in state in Mulberry street. The funeral will be grand and rather complicated.

Charley's Boston, founder of the On Leong Tong, was a good American Christian in New York, but as a Chinese he remained a disciple of Confucius, a believer in that philosophy.

In one way Confucianism and Christianity are not very far apart.
Christianity says "do unto others as you would have them do unto you."
Confucius said, hundreds of years before Christianity, "do not do unto others what you would not have them do unto you."

Mr. McManus, shot through the back, probably dying, said to police questioning him: "Don't bother me.
They got me. I'm through."
McManus, who had three revolvers on his person when shot, was an open enemy of an eminent gangster called "Whoops-a-Daisy." O'Connor, killed last September, gangster killings are frequent, but recruiting is more rapid than the killing.

We exaggerate often the wisdom and skill of the ancients.

In South America, many skulls are found, with little pieces cut out, as in modern "trepanning."
Surgeons, offhand, said: "How marvelous that ancient Aztecs with primitive instruments, could operate on the skull, and, presumably, remove tumors, or other causes of ganger."

Dr. Herbert V. Williams, who teaches medical pathology at the University of Buffalo, returns from Peru and Chile with the real story.
When the South American of ancient days had a bad headache, the "medicine man" said to him: "There are evil spirits in your head; I'll fix that."

He cut off a small round piece of the sufferer's scalp, and took out a round piece of bone, "to let the evil spirit out."

Strange, barbarous, but it is not so long since in Christian lands, the insane and the epileptic, supposed to be possessed by evil spirits, were often beaten with horrible brutality, even beaten to death, in an effort to discourage the spirits, and drive them out.

Hindu Dream Of Independence Held Impractical By Press

Brilliant Leaders Unlikely To Have Administrative Ability
In View Of Lack Of Unity Among People, Commentators Feel

Aspirations toward independence from Britain reflected in the resolutions of the Hindu Nationalist congress awake no approval in the press of the nation which took this step some hundred and fifty years ago.
But it is doubt in India's ability to form a unified and stable government rather than lack of sympathy which seems to prompt the majority of comment.

"The whole situation is very embarrassing for the British government," in the opinion of the ALBANY EVENING NEWS, which adds that
"while England may have some selfish motives in refusing independence, the future of India itself cannot be assured by independence at this time.
It may only be hoped that the Indians could rule themselves as a unit.
Such movement require years and years of time," concludes that paper.
The ASHEVILLE TIMES agrees that "even dominion status for India must be an ideal of the long future," referring to the fact that "one speaker in the recent British parliamentary debate asserted that not for a hundred years would India be ready for this step."

"One is justified in asking," remarks the DETROIT NEWS, "what complete independence for India means and what it connotes. Does it mean merely the abolition of British control? So be it; but what follows?
A great, a united nation? Or civil strife? Does it mean government by the minority who can read and write? Or does it mean participation by the uneducated majority, and if so in what form? How many people want independence, and who are they? In brief, until one knows what is in the mind of Mahatma Gandhi and his supporters, comment on the Indian independence movement must be limited and conservative. What is around the corner? That is the big question."

"Most observers," according to the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS, "consider that India's numerous peoples are not ready for nationhood. They have no common language and are divided sharply by creed and cultural differences. The peninsula witnessed almost continual warfare until the mid-nineteenth century, when Britain subdued the Mahattas and the Sikhs suppressed the Great Mutiny, and enforced peace throughout the land by maintaining a strong military establishment and impartially administering the laws."

In a review of the situation, the OTTAWA, CANADA, JOURNAL says:
"Trouble there may be, as the result of the numerous declarations at the Hindu Nationalist congress, but it takes more than a few fanatical resolutions to make a revolution, and stories visualizing crowded troop ships hurrying across the Indian ocean to quell another mutiny, or foreshadowing the immediate doom of British rule in India, with a resultant breakup of the commonwealth of nations, betray more imagination than an intelligent anticipation of events." The JERSEY CITY JOURNAL suspects that
"Gandhi now believes that the chances of dominion status look pretty good, and in order to make it certain he is asking for more than he expects to get. Hence his advocacy of complete separation from the British empire."

"A completely independent Indian state would seem, at present reasonable," in the judgment of the WASH-INGTON EVENING STAR, "not merely anomalous, but impossible. The elements of native discord are too numerous and too positive to permit the establishment of an absolutely autonomous nation. Indeed, the very word 'nation' has been rated as an absurdity with reference to the people of India, of race or language or religion.
There are, on the contrary, wide and positive divisions in India on all scores."
The FLINT DAILY JOURNAL points out that "India's leaders, educated abroad for the most part, are imbued with western civilized ways, which are beyond the capacity of the common people. India as a country still has a long way to go before it is capable of self-government."

The problem of British officials is set forth by the CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER with the statement: "The Labor government, which is not particularly interested in Indian affairs, is destined to be confronted by the most difficult problem which has met a British government since the end of the World war. Highly peaceful, Mr. MacDonald will do almost anything to appease the separatists before the breakfast begin to fly and the guns begin to sputter. He will do almost anything, but he will not actually retire under fire."

"The force of the resolution," thinks the PROVIDENCE BULLETIN, "has been somewhat weakened by the splendid work Viceroy Irwin is doing.
That British statesmanship is faced with a tough problem to settle is apparent. But British statesmanship has been meeting similar situations in its long history and can be depended upon."

"Possibilities of a compromise between the present British government and the dominant forces in India are suggested by the RALEIGH NEWS
AND OBSERVER, the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH and the NEW YORK EVENING WORLD. The essential weakness of the anti-indian movement among the leaders in India is emphasized by the BALTI-MORE EVENING SUN and the MEHPSIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL.
Conceding that the resistance of the Indian National council is "passive in form but revolutionary in object,"
the RICHMOND NEWS LEADER points out that Gandhi "can exhort and unify Hindus, and, spiritually, he is magnificent, but he is not qualified to lead a political revolution." The seriousness of the situation is observed by the SAVANNAH PRESS,
the SYRACUSE HERALD and the ST. PAUL PIONEER PRESS.

"The only base upon which self-government can be erected," maintains the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, "still remains the vast multitude of peasantry, ignorant, poverty-stricken and politically inert.
The only remaining question, and one yet largely unanswered, is how strong a hold the small group of educated Nationalists actually exerts over the great masses of India."

ANOTHER FOREIGNER

A short time ago a newspaper man spent the evening with an Italian lawyer who lives in Los Angeles. The Italian came from Genoa to settle a California estate and remained to make a fortune in California ranch lands.

He showed pictures of his ancestral castle in Italy. It is a great stone fortress in the mountains, built in 1300
by a Basque ancestor who was driven with his sheep from the Pyrenees by a faithful growth. Each generation for 600 hundred years has made some addition to the castle; and each generation has written the history of its tragedies and triumphs in an old parchment diary.

This gentleman will live the rest of his life in California; but he feels that he must soon return and add to his own handwriting the story of his generation to the old record.

How many men of the United States can cry "Foreigner?" Only such as

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Thanks to a group of opera singers, the Statue of Giuseppe Verdi was "nice and shiny" today.

Noticing that the likeness of the famed composer was black from Broadway's dirt, the singers got the city's permission to use a little soap and water. They did, while an amused crowd looked on.

GENEVA PROSPEROUS
Among the strongest supporters of the League of Nations are the merchants and other citizens of Geneva and vicinity to whom the League has brought riches beyond their rosiest dreams. It is said that rights to do business there have become veritable gold mines. Poor people do not visit the Swiss city. AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Why let over-indulgence ruin the flattering curves that make the modern figure so seductive? Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Eat healthfully but not immoderately—when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, light a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the irresistible youthfulness of the modern figure.

*Be Moderate! ... Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

"Mary" writes she is bashful, blushes when she meets people is a failure at her work, can't swim, dance or do anything other young people do and is getting nowhere in the world. She is plain and wants to know what to do.

Mary, your letter shows you believe yourself inferior. That's what is doing it. People are merely accepting you at your own value. Learn to swim. Learn to dance, mix with people and get over that idea that you are a strange goof. It's all in your head. And don't worry about blushing. Mary, it's such a joy to find a girl who can still blush. You're probably a peach and don't know it. Tell Mary to herself and then you can sell her to other people.

"Afflicted." I'm sorry, but your letter went astray and reached me only today, too late to advise on the home matter. What did you do about it?

"Jerry K." Lou took my sarcasm seriously when I say I stood up for the Evanston woman who dyed her hair and her finger nails green and got socked by her husband. (Jerry K. says "I'd have sent my wife to an insane asylum if she did that.")

"C. F." I can't write personal letters on such a difficult subject. There are too many requests. Sorry.

"M. L." Unfortunate Girl Whom Nobody Understands and "F. V." I will answer you tomorrow, one at a time. Please wait and read what I say before you make a decision. NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—It was announced today that the board of directors of the Long Island Railroad company, part of the Pennsylvania system, at a recent meeting declared a dividend of six per cent on the capital stock to come out of the 1929 earnings.

This compares with a four per cent dividend declared out of the earnings of 1928. Practically all of the capital stock of the Long Island is owned by the Pennsylvania.

Flowers Used For Lovemaking In South Sea Isles

LONDON, Jan. 9.—Courtship is done in the South Seas between dusky belles and their boy friends through the liberal use of white flowers, according to Robert Bibbings, noted artist, who has just returned from Tahiti.

"If a girl wants a lover," he says, "she wears a little white flower over the right ear; if she has a lover she wears the flower over the left ear.

"When they wear the white flower over both ears it means they have a lover but want another."

"When a young man falls in love he follows the girl of his heart and throws a white flower in her path way. Love out there is a language of flowers."

How long will this energy last under the strain of a COUGH?

15 MINUTES, says Medical Science—and the body is left weakened and exhausted.

Few people realize the terrific strain that a constant cough places on the entire system. Even 15 minutes of coughing is more weakening and will use up more bodily energy than a mile swim—or any similar physical exertion. Resistance is reduced. Energy is wasted. The body becomes weakened and over-taxed. That's the time when dangerous germs attack—when they do most damage.

That is why it is so important not only to stop a cough temporarily, but to get rid of it before it becomes serious. Don't let it get a grip on you.

FOR HEALTH'S SAKE, TAKE THE SAFEST MEANS AVAILABLE FOR QUICK RELIEF OF COUGHS!

Pertussin brings this relief because it gets at the immediate cause of coughs.

It brings safe relief because it contains no dope or harmful drugs.

Badly Injured In Peculiar Accident

BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 9.—Robert Miller, 38, of Eberhart Station, is being treated in the Butler hospital for a cut on the face, a broken jaw and weakness caused by loss of blood, resulting from an accident on the Petersville road.

Miller's injuries were received when the automobile he was driving struck a highway marker when the car left the highway. The marker was broken off and thrown into the air by the impact. It crashed through the windshield and struck Miller directly in the face.

Besides receiving a broken jaw, Miller had a jagged cut from the forehead, through the cheek to the lip, requiring 20 stitches to close. He was able to get the car back on the road before he was overcome by weakness.

Miller, who is employed in Butler, was accompanied by three other persons, none of whom was injured by the crash.

Milk Rules Are Announced Today

Dr. W. L. Steen Issues List Of Rules Covering Retail Milk Sale

Dr. William L. Steen, city health officer today issued rules and regulations covering the sale of milk in New Castle which is in conformity to the state act of assembly passed May 2, 1929.

License permits will be issued complying with requirements of the present milk ordinance for the year 1930 and will be valid until September 1, this year, to allow time to install new equipment as required by the state act.

Any person, Steen declares, who has not met with requirements of the state act before September 1, 1930, will have his permit to sell milk cancelled.

The ordinance provides: Any person who sells milk, butter, milk cream or any liquid product of milk at retail must secure a license from the city and place license plates on his car after January 1, this year.

If he sells bottled milk, the caps on the bottles must state whether the milk is grade A raw, pasteurized or certified. It is not lawful to have any other description on the caps.

Any person selling bottled raw milk must have a separate milk house to bottle the milk and to wash and sterilize bottles and equipment. It must not be used for any other purpose.

He must have in this milk house: An adequate supply of hot water or steam for washing and cleaning bottles.

The milk bottles and cans must be sterilized with steam or water which is heated to not less than 180 degrees Fahrenheit.

The bottles must be filled and capped by machine, the operators hands must not come in contact with the milk while filling and capping.

The water supply must be abundant and free from dangerous contamination.

The cows must have been tested and found free from tuberculosis.

The milk must be from cows which are kept clean and free from disease producing organism and they must be cared for so that the milk will be clean.

If milk is received from other dairy farms for bottling the cans must be washed and sterilized before being returned.

Any person selling raw milk in bulk to retail stores or to the public is required to have a license. His farm will be inspected twice annually by an inspector approved by the state health department; if found insanitary his license will be cancelled.

Any person selling raw milk in bulk to bottling or pasteurizing plants is not required to have a license. His farm will be inspected twice yearly by a state health department approved inspector and if found insanitary, all bottling or pasteurizing plants will be required to refuse to accept his milk.

Peter's Adventures

BIFFER WAS RIGHT

Peter cupped his ear with his hand. When an insect admitted he heard a sound and didn't know it for what it was, usually it meant danger. However, Peter didn't hear a thing.

"Your ears must deceive you, Biffer," said he. "Maybe you set them to ringing when you fell against that stone. All's quiet abroad, youngster."

But Peter had spoken too soon. The words had scarcely left his lips when he did hear a low whirring sound that grew louder and louder.

"I beg your pardon, Biffer," said he. "You are right—I was wrong. Some one or something is coming this way, and fast. Let's get out of the way. Whatever it is, it may be upon us any moment."

Peter caught hold of Biffer to drag the fellow to safety—although to tell the truth, he didn't in the least know where he was going, when he noticed that Biffer was sobbing.

"Good gracious, don't do that," cried he. "All is not lost yet. At least there's no one in sight." But again Peter had made a mistake. Biffer was not sobbing. He was chucking.

"What's the matter with you Biffer? First you make a great deal to do about danger; then you giggle as if nothing were wrong. Let me tell you, it would be no laughing matter if we got caught in the open."

"Right!" agreed Biffer. "But nothing's going to happen—that is nothing serious. As a matter of fact, I imagine we are about to see something funny. Do you see what I see across the path, boy? Listen. The buzzing has stopped, unless I can't hear what you hear."

Now it develops a lot of people who never had anything to lose are using the recent Wall Street market crash as an alibi to stall off payment of old bills.—The Knickerbocker Press.

You wouldn't care to meet Marvin

MONEY. Charm. Ability. In all New York there was no abler man in his field. Yet people called him "the prince of pariahs."

Men thought him a great fellow—for a little while. Women grew romantic about him—until they knew. People welcomed him at first—then dropped him as though he were an outcast.

Poor Marvin, yearning so for companionship and always denied it. Poor Marvin, ignorant of his nickname and ignorant, likewise, of the foundation for it.

Halitosis (unpleasant breath) is the damning, unforgivable, social fault. It doesn't announce its presence to its victims. Consequently it is the last thing people suspect themselves of having—but it ought to be the first.

For halitosis is a definite daily threat to all. And for very obvious reasons, physicians explain. So slight a matter as a decaying tooth may cause it. Or an abnormal condition of the gums. Or fermenting food particles skipped by the tooth brush. Or minor nose and throat infections. Or excesses of eating, drinking and smoking.

Intelligent people recognize the risk and minimize it by the regular use of full strength Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle. Night and morning. And between times before meeting others.

Listerine quickly checks halitosis because Listerine is an effective antiseptic and germicide which immediately strikes at the cause of odors. Furthermore, it is a powerful deodorant, capable of overcoming even the scent of onion and fish.

Keep Listerine handy in home and office. Carry it when you travel. Take it with you on your vacation. It is better to be safe than snubbed.

Held At Elks Home—
Kennedy Presides

There was a good attendance of the members of the Shenango Valley Chapter, Reserve Officers Association of Pennsylvania, at the monthly dinner meeting held Wednesday evening in the Elks Home.

It was the first meeting of the present year and John D. Kennedy, the new president, presided at the general business session, which followed the regular dinner.

Featuring the evening after the business session was the exhibition of three reels of excellent motion pictures taken at the government proving grounds at Aberdeen, Md., last fall, in which were shown all the latest and improved models of ordnance, including large guns and anti-aircraft guns and equipment, also tanks and many branches of the army in actual wartime maneuvers.

These were brought here and shown under the supervision of Captain Fred A. McMahon of Pittsburgh, in charge of the activities of the Ordnance department in the Pittsburgh Area.

Captain McMahon made some interesting remarks which proved a revelation to many of the reserve officers in attendance.

At the business session, a letter from Major C. B. Shaffer, president of the Pennsylvania Department of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States was read, in which he spoke of the opening of the business year of the chapters.

Attention was called to the fact that a statewide membership campaign would be inaugurated January 15 and continued until May 15, during which it was hoped that the membership of the chapter would be tripled.

The report of Paul A. Welsh, chapter treasurer, was then presented and showed the chapter finances to be in good shape. President Kennedy then announced the appointment of Dr. W. Fulton Jackson as publicity officer of the chapter.

Dr. W. Fulton Jackson then announced his appointment by the president of the state association, as chairman of the membership drive in the four counties of Mercer, Butler, Beaver and Lawrence, the district in which the Shenango Valley Chapter has supervision. He stated that he would soon have the list of men eligible for membership and that men would be appointed in the various cities and towns of the district to stir up interest in and secure members for the organization.

Barton E. Richards, state assemblyman, addressed the gathering on a matter of interest and the organization approved the motion of Major Lewis E. Burnside of Sharon, that the chapter co-operate in every possible way.

Dr. W. F. Jackson reported that state president Major C. B. Shaffer had planned to be present at the meeting with several state officers, but had been unable to do so on account of the illness of his wife. He suggested that the next meeting be held between February 1-4 in order that the official visitation could be made.

It was decided that the next meeting be held Monday, February 3.

Those in attendance were as follows: John D. Kennedy, First Lieutenant, Finance Reserve, Headquarters 99th Division; Jay L. Reed, First Lieutenant, 343rd Medical Regiment; Jesse R. Cooper, Major Medical Reserve; F. D. Perrine, First Lieutenant, 599th Engineers Battalion; R. C. Lutz, Captain, 343rd Medical Regiment; Roland N. Haines, Second Lieutenant, 355th Infantry; Lewis E. Burnside, Major, 22nd Engineers; William F. Jackson, Major, First Medical Regiment; Paul A. Welsh, Lt., 580th Field Artillery; C. E. Imbrie, Major, 57th Evacuation Hospital; Donald Donley, First Lieutenant, 343rd Medical Regiment; L. C. Barnhart, Second Lieutenant, 99th Signal Co.; D. A. McQuiston, Lt. Colonel, 395th Infantry; A. A. Smith, Captain, 395th Infantry; Robert M. Strickler, Jr., First Lieutenant Infantry Reserve; Walter L. Curtis, First Lieutenant 395th Infantry; J. R. Sharp, First Lieutenant 395th Infantry; Fred A. McMahon, Captain Ordnance Department, U. S. A.; Barton E. Richards, Harry K. Bell.

It took the postoffice department 67 years to deliver the letter. No explanation was given for the delay.

ALSO REMEMBERED
Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 9.—A bequest of approximately $5,000,000 without any stipulations whatsoever attached to it will accrue to Harvard University under the terms of the will of the late Stuart Wyeth, Philadelphia chemical manufacturer, on file for probate here today.

The sum is said to be the largest ever left to the famous university without any reservations. Wyeth did not even request that the huge fortune be termed a memorial.

Another bequest was the sum of $100,000 left to former Judge James Gay Gordon here who for many years was a close friend of the testator. It also was left without any stipulations. About $10,000 additional was left to other friends, associates and relatives. A trust fund to provide $30,000 annually for his mother also was left by Stuart but this clause is ineffective as his mother died ten years ago. The other bequests include:

John A. Noble, Brooklyn, $28,000; Eleanor Abbott, Boston, $30,000; Stuart Wyeth, son of Nathan Wyeth, Washington architect, $40,000; Frederick Phillips, New York $12,000; and Henry C. Trumbauer, Mt. Airy, Pa., a vice president of the John Wyeth and Son Chemical Corporation, $10,000.

The remainder of the huge fortune accumulated by Wyeth as president of the John Wyeth and Son Company here, goes to Harvard. Wyeth died December 30 last at his home here.

Thirteen Fast Horses Wintered At Track

In the warm summer when the vast crowds watch the races out at the local Fair Grounds few stop to think of the time and hard work that is spent in schooling and conditioning the well bred horses during the winter months.

At the present time there are 13 fine horses in winter quarters at the local track. Walter Johnson has a string of ten trotters and pacers that he is keeping in shape. At the present the track is too soft to permit jogging, and the animals are exercised over the dirt roads handy to the barn. The track is being blanketed with straw which will keep the front in the ground once it is frozen and make a more satisfactory road bed.

Blood Transfusion Volunteers Sought

Only Method For Saving Life Of Young Woman At Hospital

In the Jameson Memorial hospital at the present time there is a young woman who needs blood, if her life is to be spared. For two weeks she has been there and to the anemic condition of her blood was added the additional burden of child birth.

For several days her husband, R. A. Seamans has endeavored to find some one willing to undergo a blood transfusion, and a number of applicants have presented themselves, but the test showed their blood to be of a different type.

Volunteers are wanted who will undergo a blood transfusion, and if they will present themselves at the hospital laboratory on the fifth floor, tests of their blood will be made. It is the one way in which the young woman's life can be spared.

Taking everything into consideration the race horse leads a very pleasant existence, their smallest needs are looked after, they are fed exactly on the dot. They are kept clean and warmly blanketed during the cold weather, they are given regular exercise but never tired.

Worthy Lord is probably the best known to New Castle people of any of the local horses and it is stated that he is recovering from an injury to a leg and is expected to show his usual fast time this coming campaign.

Women's Feet Are Bigger Than Ever, Stylists Declare

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 9.—Experts and stylists of the shoe world generally were agreed today that women's feet are larger than ever but have reached the maximum. Men have fewer bunions.

The consensus at the National Shoe Retailers' Association convention here was that the small dainty foot has gone because comfort has become the criterion. With the larger shoe the foot has expanded to the natural size that fashion of the mauve and earlier ages repressed.

"The day of sore feet, caused by small shoes in wearing its end," said

Name Committee To Select New Scout Executive

Executive Board Accepts Resignation Of J. Lee Calahan, With Regret

Successor Will Probably Be Named At Special Meeting On January 22

Meeting at Boy Scout headquarters in the Greer building Wednesday night, members of the executive board and council members of the Lawrence County Boy Scout council accepted, with regret, the formal resignation of J. Lee Calahan as chief scout executive here.

Mr. Calahan leaves January 15 to assume his new duties as a national sea scout director, with temporary headquarters at New York City, and while the board regrets to see him go it is nevertheless gratified in knowing that he takes over a better position, a promotion which was well deserved.

No definite action in the selection of a successor was taken last night, although L. B. Round, DeLace Cole, Dr. H. S. Gold, Herbert Christmas and Dr. W. Charles Wallace were named as a committee of five to interview candidates for the post.

The special committee will meet with Major R. F. Seymour, regional scout executive to discuss the selection on Saturday afternoon, January 11, and will report its findings at a special meeting of the executive board and council on Wednesday, January 22.

A resolution accepting blanket reports of various phases of county scout activity, submitted by different committees, was adopted. Reports on camp work, troop development, finance, leadership and training, court of honor, publicity, health and safety, treasurer's report, scout executive and scout commissioner's report, president's report and others were heard.

The board also voted to petition national headquarters for a renewal of the council charter for the year of 1930.

To fill the vacancy of James W. Cole, secretary of the board who leaves the city shortly, A. W. Chilton, secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce was chosen. The same committee named to interview applicants for the position which Mr. Calahan relinquishes was also appointed to serve as the nominating committee for the election of board officers for the ensuing year.

Twenty-seven members of the scout board and council were present last night.

BIRD CHASER NEW JOB AT CAPITAL

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The District of Columbia's budget for the next fiscal year will carry salaries for two bird-chasers. Daniel F. Gargies, secretary to the Board of District Commissioners, is deciding just how much a man assigned to such work shall receive.

Every year flocks of starlings storm the District Building and create considerable disturbance. The fire hose has been turned upon them, smoke belched over them and almost everything that will frighten a bird has been tried with no avail. They fly away but always return.

Until Christmas Eve the birds confine their operations to the outside of the building. On this particular night about 20 of them invaded the building and startled employees found them flying up and down the elevator shaft and through the long corridors. It was believed they entered through ventilators.

Wife Of One Twice And Of Two At Once

Young Matron's Marital Difficulties Give Two Men Worries

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 9.—On again, off again, gone again Finnegan, has his counterpart in Mrs. Flora Horn Lauterback Horn, a young woman of twenty-six, whose experiences appear to be various and unusual.

Ten or eleven years ago the young woman married Raymond J. Horn, a taxicab driver of Rochester. At that time she was sixteen and on account of her age, her mother had the marriage annulled. Two years afterward she married Horn again. She says she eloped with him each time, but he denies there was any elopement. Then came a son, and some time afterward the woman again left the bed and board of Horn, and in November, 1928, according to Carl Lauterback of White Plains, she married him.

Last July, she left him and went back to Horn, and recently on the basis of a letter she is said to have written to Lauterback that husband went before a Supreme Court Justice in White Plains and had the marriage annulled.

The letter said she had quit changing her mind and had come back to live with Horn, whom she had always loved.

Horn, whose home is at No. 396 Sixth street, admitted that Flora came back to live with him, but added to the complications by saying "that a month previously she again ran away from him, and is still away from him." He said his wife was still in Rochester and blamed his troubles on too much mother-in-law. He said he had consulted Attorney James C. O'Brien with a view to instituting divorce proceedings.

Woman With 11 Dogs May Lose Charity Aid

(International News Service) DENVER, Col., Jan. 9.—County commissioners of Jefferson county, adjoining Denver, have issued an ultimatum to Mrs. Adele Thompson, a charge of the county, that unless she disposes of her eleven dogs she can no longer receive her sustenance allowance. Commissioners declared they do not object to furnishing food, shelter and raiment to the destitute woman, but decline to have part of her allowance used in caring for her eleven canine pets.

Ask Grundy To Support Brown

Philadelphia G. O. P. Will Ask Senator Grundy Support Brown For Governor

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—Members of the Philadelphia G. O. P. "war board" during the absence of William S. Vare, will seek the alliance of Senator Joseph R. Grundy in their campaign to advance the claims of former Attorney General Francis Shunk Brown for the gubernatorial nomination.

James M. Hazlett, chairman of the city Republican committee, Sheriff Thomas W. Cunningham, and Councilman Charles B. Hall contemplate calling on the newly named senator in the near future in the effort to get him to support Brown's candidacy. The trio called on Mayor Harry A. Mackey last Monday in an effort to heal the breach between the various factions here then on Tuesday discussed Brown's aspirations with Governor John S. Fisher at Harrisburg.

It is freely reported here that if Senator Grundy agrees to support Brown for the gubernatorial post, Vare will not oppose Grundy for the senatorial nomination at the primary in the spring.

Reports were also current here today that State Treasurer Edward Martin would not be endorsed by the Mellon faction for the gubernatorial post. It is said that since Martin was elected to one state office it is felt he should fulfill the term of that office before trying to secure another.

237,000,000 Bibles In Circulation In 1929

(International News Service) LONDON, Jan. 9.—The Bible is still the best seller. The number of volumes of the Scripture in circulation is 237,000,000.

The figures were given out by Dr. John H. Ritson, who has just completed 30 years as literary agent for the Bible. To mark the occasion, a lunch was given in his honor by the British and Foreign Bible society.

"With the exception of Russia," said Dr. Ritson, "where the society is excluded, I have seen the yearly European circulation of the Bible doubled from 763,000 to 1,420,000 volumes. In South America the circulation has risen from 41,000 to 505,000."

MIRROR YEAR IN COOLING
After taking nearly a year to cool, a huge mirror has been made in Europe for a large reflecting telescope. Weighing more than a ton and a half, it is 69 inches in diameter and 10 inches thick. Discs of glass of this size are difficult to obtain free from flaws, and after the molten glass is poured into the mould it must be kept warm by electric heaters, and cooled down gradually over a period of many months.

Any COLD

That cold may lead to something serious, if neglected. The time to do something for it is now. Don't wait until it develops into bronchitis. Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin as soon as you feel a cold coming on. Or as soon as possible after it starts. Bayer Aspirin will head off or relieve the aching and feverish feeling—will stop the headache. And if your throat is affected, dissolve two or three tablets in a quarter-glassful of warm water, and gargle. This quickly soothes a sore throat and reduces inflammation and infection. Mrs. David Schulte Takes New Husband (International News Service) NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Mrs. David A. Schulte, former wife of the millionaire owner of a chain of cigar stores and Edward Jones, noted French art dealer, were to be married today at City hall and will sail tonight on the Bremen for Europe. Three sons of Mrs. Schulte, Arthur,

John and David, were to accompany the bride couple, it was said.

Recently the Joneses were divorced after Jones had gained fame with his exclusive Fifth avenue galleries. About the same time the Schultes also parted.

Neither Mr. Jones nor Mrs. Schulte would discuss their marriage plans or reveal the romance that brought them together, as they business themselves for the wedding today.

"King" Of Liberia Will Record Tribe Language

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 9.—"King" Charles G. Bloah, born to rule a tribe of 25,000 in Liberia, has left Chicago for that country—but as a scientist and not a king. Bloah ran away from his native country many years ago, came to Chicago and became a pin boy in a University of Chicago bowling alley.

By working his way upwards, he gained a graduate student's degree in anthropology.

Bloah, with many phonograph records, plans to record native speech and music of the Grebo tribe for a contribution to science of primitive men.

Tourists Leave Trail Of Gold Across France

By ALICE LANGELEIR
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Jan. 9.—Tourists left a trail of gold when they visited France last year, according to the French expert Monsieur Maynial. In actual figures, the sum totalled over thirty-six millions of dollars which went to different hotels, transportation services, amusements of various kinds, purchases in shops, principally for women's wear and petty expenditures such as cabs, stamps, telegrams, etc.

This summer's report which is just being made up is, unfortunately much less satisfying. It is very difficult to measure tourist traffic with anything like accuracy, for account has to be taken of people who are simply passing through the country and it has been found that more people are passing through to Central Europe after only brief stays in France.

Hotel proprietors say that business with foreign visitors during the past summer season fell off by 30 per cent in comparison with the previous year, while an inquiry among the principal personalities in the luxury trades leads to an estimate that their receipts from foreigners have fallen by from ten to twenty per cent.

The National Tourist Office has at present a budget credit of only 4,000,000 francs (about $160,000). And this, according to some of the authorities, is one of the principal causes of the trouble. If France must keep pace with her rivals, she should provide in her next budget at least two million dollars for tourist propaganda both at home and abroad.

The city has just set aside more than one thousand dollars for the special instruction on Parisian children in the care and cultivation of flowers. The education of the children in the subject of horticulture is to be seriously taken up and it is hoped that more families will thus be encouraged to provide window-boxes and buy small pots of ground in the suburbs where gardens can be fashioned by the children after school hours and during the week end.

The Louvre Museum has recently opened a new room devoted to objects from the Greco-Roman and Christian periods of Egyptian civilization which followed the native dynasties. It has received the name of "La Salle Bouit" after a little Egyptian village from which most of the antiquities come.

And the museum of Fontainebleau Palace has recently set aside two rooms for the works of Rosa Bonheur, celebrated painter of animals, who, at the age of nineteen shocked a large number of serious French academicians by painting in pants.

She painted animals after nature which hadn't been done before her time.

Besides any of her important pictures, the Museum contains some of her personal souvenirs, such as some medals, a fan, her watch and her hair which she bobbed.

Father Ricard, "Padre Of The Rains" Tells How Sun Spots And Storms Go Together

By GILBERT GORDON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SANTA CLARA, Cal., Jan. 9.—Sun-spots, passing around the solar orb, travel simultaneously with storms over the surface of the earth; in fact, they are inseparable companions.

And it takes a "spot" exactly 27.28 days to go around the sun.

So declared Father Jerome Ricard, patriarchal "Padre of the Rains," in reviewing his sun-spot theory of weather prognostication.

Father Ricard's message, contained in a pamphlet entitled "Looking Backward," was hailed with gratification by his world-wide circle of adherents, for it proves that the venerable "weather padre" has fully recovered from a serious illness. His frail physique, triumphed over a complication of ills that threatened the life of the aged scientist.

"When Father Ricard throws a verbal broadside at those scientists who scoff at his sunspot theory, as he does in his pamphlet just published, it is a sure sign that he is his own virile self again," commented faculty members of the University of Santa Clara.

In declaring that "sunspots synchronize with the arrival of storms and counter-storms over the Pacific Coast," Father Ricard propounded his highly mathematical method of deducing weather conditions a month ahead.

"But no astronomer will ever believe in it," deplored the Padre. "The tendency to teach the world with great airs of infallibility is highly developed among astronomers. So the best way to get along is to keep quiet and say you know nothing. It is not exactly a sin to have discovered the origin of sunspots, but it is to have gone too fast in the line of progress, which is a terrible deprecate to sleep conservatism."

The nude for a portrait painter but only on the condition that I would never have to look at the finished picture," she replied. Pressed to explain the reason for this condition Mme. ex-Duflos declined to answer.

"Never, unless the playwright orders me to appear nude," said Yvonne Printemps, but "the playwright" is Sacha Guitry, her husband.

Mlle. Miropolska, a lawyer, and Veda Savino, actress, are unequivocally opposed to displaying themselves in the nude for art's sake or any other reason.

Mme. Titayna, who photographs nude islanders in the tropics, prefers not to be seen as she sees others.

20 Minutes Decides Fortune's Disposition

Difference Between Time Of Deaths Of Illinois Man And Wife

CARBONDALE, Ill., Jan. 9.—The difference of 20 minutes in the deaths of Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Hundley, wealthy Carbondale residents, found mysteriously slain in their fashionable home here a year ago, means thousands of dollars to Victor A. Hundley, son of this city and Mrs. Lula Roake, Memphis, son and daughter of the slain man, the county court held recently. Mrs. Hundley was their stepmother.

During these few minutes that Hundley breathed he inherited half of his wife's real estate and all of her personal property, which will now be inherited by his two children. They also will inherit all of their father's property through a will, although most of it is held in trust.

Young Hundley was charged with the slaying, but was released and the charges were dropped.

Women Turn Depot Into A Club House

RITZVILLE, Wash., Jan. 9.—Resourceful Western women have turned an old abandoned depot and a church into attractive club houses.

The Woman's Club of this town took over the Congregational church, which had been unoccupied twelve years. Windows were broken, doors had lost their hinges, dust and cobwebs draped the furnishings, and birds flew in and out. The women formed a corporation, purchased the structure and turned it into a serviceable club house.

When the Cascade tunnel was completed an abandoned depot was left in the little town of Leavenworth. The Women's club secured it, fitted it up comfortably and it is now used not only by the club women but by the Leavenworth Chamber of Commerce.

"I might be persuaded to pose in the nude," she replied.

A less emphatic "maybe" comes from Mme. Huguette ex-Duflos, statuesque blonde actress, who divorced her husband but kept his name.

British Who's Who Is Quite Humorous

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Did you know that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh married Elizabeth Davis, daughter of Dwight Davis, Ambassador to Mexico? That John D. Rockefeller, Sr., was the author of such a sterling work as "Random Reminiscences"? That Irving Berlin was the son of Moses Berlin?

No, and neither did anybody else until they picked up a 130 edition of the British "Who's Who." Wednesday and began a bewildered perusal of its American inaccuracies.

Aside from the fact that Lindbergh has no such wife, Wright Davis has no daughter named Elizabeth and Mexico never had an ambassador by that name. The British were correct. The Lone Eagle married Ann Morrow, daughter of Dwight W. Morrow.

Rabbi Menkes Announces Theme

Interesting Questions To Be Answered On Friday Evening
At Temple Israel

Since every act calls forth a certain response, what are the general principles that govern and condition all reactions? How does nature respond to our endeavors? Do the same principles hold good in human relations? What is the fundamental assumption of all religions in general and Judaism in particular on this subject? Is it true that we must be prepared for war in order to have peace? Wherein lies the fallacy of this adage?

These questions will be discussed by Rabbi Menkes at the regular Friday evening services at Temple Israel tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock. After the services there will be a social hour with Mrs. A. Marlin and Mrs. Wm. L. Cosel acting as hostesses.

Saturday morning services at 10:30 a. m.

Best Remedy for Cough Is Easily Mixed at Home

You'll never know how quickly a stubborn cough or chest cold can be conquered, until you try this famous recipe. It is used in millions of homes, because it gives more prompt, positive relief than anything else. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey to make a full pint. This saves two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough medicine, and gives you a purer, better remedy. It never spoils, and tastes good—children like it.

You can actually feel its penetrating, soothing action on the inflamed throat membranes. It is also absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes. At the same time, it promptly loosens the germ-laden phlegm. This three-fold action explains why it brings such quick relief even in severe bronchial coughs which follow cold epidemics.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and known as one of the greatest healing agents for severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Taft Assured He Will Be Out Again In Short While

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—William Howard Taft, chief justice of the supreme court and former president of the United States, was resting comfortably Wednesday in Garfield hospital. His spirit was brightened when his physicians told him the slight recurrence of an old bladder trouble would be cleared within a week.

Taft entered the hospital Tuesday to receive treatment. He hopes to leave his bed within ten days and go to Asheville, N. C., for a long rest.

The physicians have found his pressing court work of recent months and the death last week of his brother in Cincinnati have thoroughly fatigued him. They have asked him to relax and permit no court problems to enter his mind.

The patient is in a cheerful mood. He entered the hospital with a cheerful inquiry for his private room and has a smile for his nurses and physicians. His condition is not considered as serious.

At a conference held in Pittsburgh Tuesday, between representatives of the Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango rivers improvement Association and W. H. Stevenson, chairman of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Canal Board, the activities of the Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango Rivers Improvement Association were explained to Mr. Stevenson.

A very pleasant conference was held. Mr. Stevenson was to appear later before the waterways committee of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon meeting, where waterways activities affecting this territory were being discussed.

STARTING MONDAY

Almost Two Hundred Years Since First Printing Press In America

Two hundred and ninety-one years ago on Saturday, Jan. 9, the first printing press was used in America.

Little is said about the invention of the printing press, and the importance of such a machine to the world has not been emphasized nearly as much as has the airplane and the locomotive.

There is a vast difference between the modern printing press such as that of the New Castle News, and the early printing machines. The earliest engraving of a printing press shows a stout framework of wood posts, firmly embraced against the ceiling to resist upward pressure, a bedplate of stone as a rest for the form of type, which could be exposed to receive ink and then be slid under the platen or pressing surface. Impression was given by a large screw of wood over this platen and this screw was moved by a long bar of wood and iron. The sheet of paper to be printed was about 16 inches wide and 20 inches long. This was the common size.

The first improvement in the construction of printing machines was made in 1601, by Blaeuw of Amsterdam.

In 1814, the London Times used the first cylinder press driven by steam power.

The reader of The News, with its store of information and its many advertisements, which may be bought for 3 cents, seldom gives a thought to the wonderful machinery necessary to the production of such a sheet, but when we stand beside one of the great machines which prints, folds and counts these papers at the rate of 36,000 an hour, we are amazed at what inventive genius has accomplished in the perfection of the printing press.

Formerly, all the processes connected with printing, required hard labor by hand. Today, but very little hard labor is required. Three processes take place in setting the type.

How Eczema Is Conquered

You can banish every trace of annoying Eczema and banish it in an astonishingly short time—this time next week your skin will be nearly healed and well on the road to enchanting loveliness and beauty—but you must use Peterson's Ointment.

Peterson's possesses such remarkable healing and soothing qualities that minor pimples and blackheads go like magic—that obstinate cases of burning Eczema are gone after a few days' treatment. First application takes out itching and burning.

Virgie Hawkins of Wallace, Va., writes: "I had a very bad case of Eczema. The eruptions on one of my arms were so bad I couldn't use it. I had the trouble for over a year. I got a box of Peterson's Ointment and in 2 weeks my Eczema had disappeared."

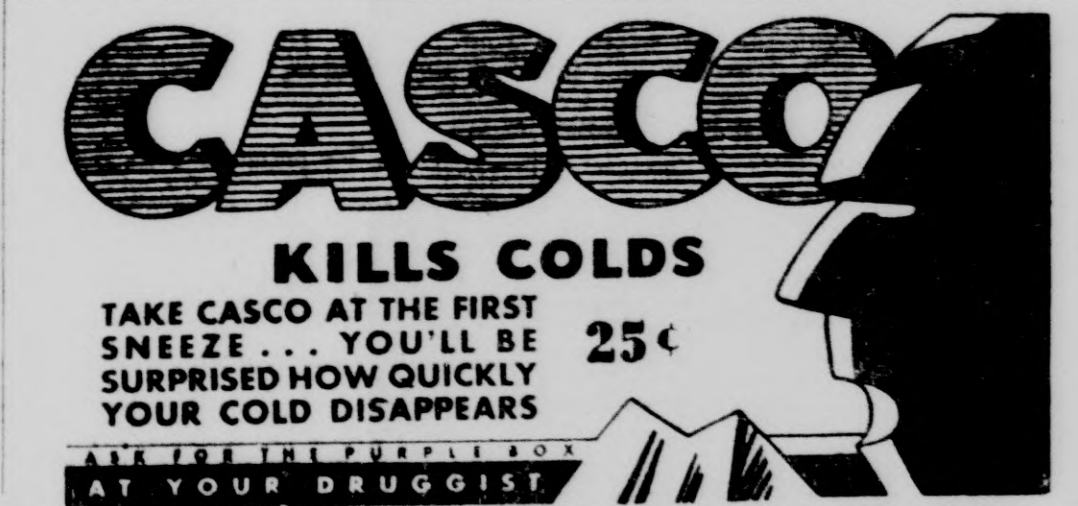

Eczema and itching skin can't withstand the powerfully healing influence of Peterson's Ointment and one 35c box will prove it. All druggists.

Actresses Get Absolution In Taylor Murder

Judge William C. Doran, Says No Evidence On Hand To Show Taylor Killed By Woman

By LYLE ABBOTT
International News Service Special Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 9.—The investigation of the murder of William Desmond Taylor developed no evidence indicating the guilt of Mabel Normand or Mary Miles Minter.

In an exclusive interview Wednesday, with International News Service this declaration was made by Superior Court Judge William C. Doran. He, as chief deputy district attorney following the shooting to death of the motion picture director, February 1, 1922, was in direct charge of the investigation.

Actresses Absolved
For eight years and in numerous past and present retrials of the Taylor murder mystery, an unnamed "motion picture actress" has been stated in newspaper interviews to have been the slayer of Taylor.

Judge Doran was asked specifically if he could be quoted as saying that the investigation under his direction had exonerated the two former famous film stars who were close friends of the director.

"I do not feel it would be proper," Judge Doran replied, "for me to say exactly therefore it would be a personal opinion. I will reiterate however, that there was no evidence to indicate either of these two young women participated in the crime.

Miss Normand is in a sanitarium near Los Angeles in a critical condition from pulmonary trouble, and for several months, her death has been momentarily expected.

Miss Minter left her palatial apartments in Los Angeles a week ago and is now in a hospital at Santa Barbara from what is said by friends to be a nervous breakdown.

Judge Doran said he had personally interviewed all the suspects in the Taylor case "who could have known anything of importance about it."

Statements Preserved
"Their statements," he said, "were all preserved in writing. Among those I questioned were Miss Normand, Miss Minter and Mrs. Charlotte Shelby, Miss Minter's mother."

"The evidence was so limited that if some one would come forward and confess the murder, he would have to produce corroborative testimony before his confession could be accepted," said Judge Doran. "He would be compelled to substantiate his confession by other credible testimony in order to secure his own conviction. And that, in my opinion, would include even William F. Sands."

Sands Disappeared
Sands disappeared about the time of Taylor's murder. "I checked all the movements of all who were in any way connected with Taylor," Judge Doran resumed. "They included Sands, Mrs. Shelby, Miss Minter and Miss Normand."

"I questioned Henry Peavey, Taylor's negro house-boy, very thoroughly. He had nothing of a conclusive nature to say regarding the murder. "This is not the first time that it has been reported the murderer of Taylor has been discovered. The report has always created the greatest sensationalism, and each time the story has been proved to be pure fiction."

29 Law Officers Have Lost Lives In State Service

Nine State Troopers Have Been Shot And Killed On Duty

HARRISBURG, Jan. 9.—Since the organization of the State Police force more than 25 years ago nine troopers have been shot and killed in the line of duty. Twenty State Policemen have met violent deaths in that period.

Since the organization of the State Highway Patrol five years ago two patrolmen have been shot and killed, and nine is the total number of patrolmen who met violent deaths. The second patrolman shot and killed was Brady Paul, who met death near New Castle, December 27.

Of the State Highway Patrolmen the majority of those killed on duty were victims of motorcycle "spills" or collisions with automobiles. A number of State Policemen met death in the same manner.

Patrolmen killed were as follows: Theodore F. Rossow, 1927; Vincent Hassen, 1927; Martin A. Hanohos, 1927; Sharon C. Wible, 1928; Jay Proof, 1928; Andrew Miller, 1928; Russell T. Swanson, shot, 1929; Wells C. Hammond, 1929, and Brady C. Paul, shot, 1929. William J. Phelan in 1925 and Harry L. Smith in 1929 died from natural causes while members of the patrol.

Senator Grundy Springs Surprise Shows Senators Something New In Way Of Senatorial Ethics

(Special To The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9.—Senator Joseph Grundy has established an entirely new standard of ethics in a legislative body where ethics and courtesy have been quite completely swirled into oblivion by the backwash of the tariff fight.

Senator Grundy's surprise package came in the Senate when the clerk was calling the roll for vote on an amendment which would increase the tariff duty on wool yarn valued from one dollar to one dollar and a half a pound.

"I am interested in the industry which is sheltered under this paragraph. Therefore I would like to withhold my vote on this amendment," Grundy announced when his name was called.

Democrats, progressives, and members of the lobby investigating committee who had done their best to brand Grundy as the arch lobbyist turned and looked at the junior Pennsylvania Senator in wonderment at this announcement. For Senators are accustomed to vote on bills regardless of whether their own financial interests are involved.

Senator Grundy's action was indeed unlooked for.

Bray To Outline River Project In Waterway Magazine

Wampum Cement Plant Official Hopes Enthusiasm In Project Will Continue

John W. Black, Editor of the National Waterways, issued at Pittsburgh, was a visitor in Youngstown yesterday and called at the offices of The Beaver, Mahoning, Shenango Rivers Improvement Association to secure photographs of the large industrial plants located along the river channels.

He expressed great surprise in hearing of the death of A. E. Adams, member of the Lake Erie and Ohio River Ship Canal Board organized in 1915.

His magazine will publish on January 18th a very interesting article by T. J. Bray, president of the local waterways project, in which very pertinent arguments have been outlined emphasizing the need of lower transportation rates for this area, the tremendous tonnage feeder which this district would be to both the Ohio River Canal and the Mississippi River Waterway and the probable industrial expansion which would take place if the rivers improvement should be approved by the Board of Army Engineers and by Congress. Mr. Bray emphasized the point that this improvement does not contemplate the actual digging of a canal bed, but it does comprehend the utilization of the existing stream beds for navigation purposes.

E. J. Maguire, Treasurer of the Crescent Portland Cement Company at Wampum, Pennsylvania, says, "We sincerely hope that the enthusiasm which has recently been stirred up in connection with this valuable improvement may continue until actual results are secured. Speaking of the plan which his Company has on the Beaver River, he says, "It is capable of producing a million and a half barrels of Portland Cement a year, and at a valuation of say Two Dollars per barrel at the plant, represents a productive value of Three Million Dollars. Allowing five barrels to the ton it will mean a total of 300,000 per year of material that could be moved on the river at an advantage of both ourselves and the customer. We are heartily in favor of this improvement."

Power Companies Merger Is Planned

Announcement is made by B. C. Cobb, chairman of the board and T. W. Martin, president of The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, that the directors have adopted a plan for the simplification of the corporate structure of the Commonwealth & Southern system.

The plan contemplates the merger into The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation of Penn.-Ohio Edison Company, Southeastern Power & Light Company and Commonwealth Power Corporation which companies own the common stock of the various operating companies in the Commonwealth & Southern system and further contemplates the merger of Allied Power & Light Corporation with the Commonwealth & Southern Corporation. The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation now owns over 96 per cent of the common stock of Commonwealth Power Corporation, Southeastern Power & Light Company and Penn.-Ohio Edison Company on account of which The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation common stock has been issued and will remain outstanding.

The plan was approved Tuesday by the directors of the corporations affected and notices of meetings of the stockholders of the companies for the ratification of the action of the directors will be mailed in the next few days.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Tests Help Vocational Guidance

Can the psychologist give vocational guidance on the basis of intelligence tests. Can he tell your boy of six or ten if he should aspire to be a civil engineer, business executive, preacher, butcher, barber or psychologist. If the child rates very high or very low on an intelligence scale he may give some pretty good advice. If the child rates high he may be assured he has the native ability to prepare for one of the professions. No matter how bright the child may be his mere brightness will not guarantee success in preparation nor success after preparation. If the child rates very low the psychologist may, with a high degree of assurance advise the boy not to aspire to the professions. Further than that he can do little. If he has good hunches he may make some wholesome prophecies for the lad.

Perhaps the average parent does not at all realize that the public school practically decides whether his child is able to go to college or not and in some instances the kind of college he cannot enter.

For example, children rating below a certain level on an intelligence scale and also falling below a certain average grade in leading subjects are advised (some commanded) get these six vital salts which modern foods and cooking do not supply. This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidney and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

The urge for activity will be so marked that even at the end of a hard day's work you'll feel ready for any social activity or recreation—you can play as hard as you work.

And after two weeks your excess flesh starts to go—you'll know it—feel it—see it—the scales will tell the story.

As one, once corpulent man remarked—"I feel so energetic that I want to get up with the lark and I'm just as lively as a cricket."

Kruschen Salts is not a purgative or a cathartic, but a real system conditioner and for those who are the victims of constipation or toxemia its daily use soon means blissful regularity.

Get That "Kruschen Feeling" It's the Little Daily Dose that does it.

not to take up any foreign languages. Such a child at once is debarrd from a large group of colleges and turned away from the professions.

Enough very convincing data is now available to prove that the child falling below a certain grade of work, and also below a certain level on an intelligence rating scale say in the 8th grade will not succeed if he enters up foreign languages or if he enters college will hardly pass and less likely will be successful in a professional school.

Since the public school is spending public money it can be justified in preventing children from pursuing studies which will prove wasteful of public funds. It is the duty of the public school moreover to keep the child from undertaking what he certainly cannot do and to guide him into channels where he can succeed.

Death Rate In State Held At Low Average

Influenza Last January Prevented Establishing New Health Record

TUBERCULOSIS RATE SHOWS BIG DECREASE

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 9.—The total number of deaths in Pennsylvania in 1929 was approximately 116,000 according to a preliminary report announced today by the bureau of vital statistics, in the State department of Health. The death rate based upon this number of deaths is 11.7 per 1000 population. This rate is lower than in any other year on record with the one exception of 1927 when a rate of 11.4 was recorded. Except for the high mortality in January as a result of the influenza epidemic, the rate of 1929 would have set a new low record.

New low records were set in 1929 in the death rates for typhoid fever, diphtheria, tuberculosis and diarrheal diseases of infants. On the other hand new high records were reached by cancer, heart disease, diabetes and automobile accidents.

The final 1929 death rate from typhoid fever will be only slightly below the low record of 2.0 per 100,000 population in 1928. The number of deaths from this cause in 1928 was 194. Late reports may bring the 1929 total to 190.

White Plague Fight

New low death rates for tuberculosis have been set in every month since January and the final rate for 1929 will be about 65 per 100,000 population as compared with 69 in 1928. Diphtheria mortality has been low throughout the year and its death rate will be about 7.0 as compared with a previous low record of 8.3 in 1926. Diarrhea and enteritis under age 2 caused fewer than 200 deaths in 1929. The previous low record was 2130 deaths in 1928 with a rate of 21.6 per 100,000 population. The death rate from scarlet fever is also lower than in any recent year, although not as low as the record set in 1918.

The preliminary death rate from cancer for 1929 is 99.5 per 100,000 as compared with 98.5 in 1928. For diabetes the preliminary rate is 22.0 as compared with a rate of 21.8 in 1928. The heart disease rate for 1929 will be more than 230 as compared with a high record of 228.6 in 1928. Deaths from automobile accidents exceeded 2100 in 1929 and the preliminary death rate of 21.5 may be compared with the previous high rates of 19.1 in 1927 and 1928.

Of other important causes of death comparatively high rates were recorded in 1929 from influenza, apoplexy and nephritis. In spite of high mortality in January the pneumonia death rate in 1929 was well below the average.

Naval Parley Hope

John Bull Will Have Something At Stake At Naval Conference

By CHARLES P. STEWART,
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The five-power naval conference in London, beginning toward the end of January, will have one redeeming feature about it, anyhow.

John Bull will have something at stake this time, as well as Uncle Sam. To be sure, the British government will not be as deeply involved as America's, but it will be in it part way up to its neck, at all events.

A single group of delegates, trying to go it alone at an important international gathering, are in hard luck, as was discovered when the fellow diplomats left the United States holding the sack at the Washington naval negotiations in 1921-22.

The Washington affair eight years ago was almost exclusively Charles Evans Hughes' little party.

Secretary Hughes, then head of the state department, proposed to himself to go thundering down in history as author of the first world-wide naval disarmament compact on record.

Representatives of the four countries which he invited to join our own republic in this program were quick to see their advantage.

Mr. Hughes had told the universe in advance, to the accompaniment of many brass bands, what he was about to accomplish. It was up to him to accomplish it or appear in a perfectly ridiculous light, as a statesman who had promised infinitely more than he was able to deliver.

The other participants in the conference did not intend to cut their naves down a cent's worth.

They did offer a compromise to Mr. Hughes, however.

In effect they said to him: "If you will agree to cut the stuffing out of the American navy, we will agree to a lot of hokus-pokus that will make unsophisticated landlubbers believe we are doing likewise. Of course it will not be the real thing on our part, but it will save your face. Otherwise we will leave you with an undiluted fizzle on your hands, to make the best of."

Secretary Hughes agreed, rather than be a laughing stock. There is no longer any doubt that the coming London conference will be a flop also; probably a semi-disgusted flop, like its predecessor.

But it will not be a flop altogether; at the United States' expense.

On the present occasion Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, of England, has been as prominently identified with the preliminary arrangements as President Hoover. Let the meeting go floozy and it will be as embarrassing for the one as for the other.

Why should it go floozy? Well, consider:

Britain claims to be mistress of the seas. Many Americans dispute it. However, Prime Minister MacDonald was so certain the British never would yield that he asked Mr. Hoover to leave that question out of the two countries' naval discussion. Mr. Hoover acquiesced, but can it be kept out?—It is so mighty vital.

Still, supposing it can; what next? Why, the next thing is that Japan's terms would be considered absolutely impossible if it were not for one thing—and that is that France's terms are so much worse as to make Japan's seem rather moderate.

And Italy demands equality with France.

Those are the five powers.

Already the negotiators have abandoned all hopes of France. That automatically snuffs out all hopes of Italy.

Japan is not deemed so hopeless; merely difficult.

What the negotiators are planning now is a triangular bargain—America, Britain and the Japanese.

Yes, and then—

France is committed to a naval construction rampage that Italy will have to keep up with, whereupon Britain will have to resume building to hold control of the Mediterranean, whereupon America will have to hustle to stay even with Britain, whereupon Japan will have to work overtime to remain in the race with America and Britain—and so on and on and on forever.

And it appears inevitable, agreement or no agreement.

Yet the chances are there will be sort of an agreement—something like the 1921-22 Washington compact. Think fortune, however, in this instance America are not the only folk it will be necessary to fool; there will be the British, too, to hoodwink.

Did you say "Germany?"

Why, yes, now that she's mentioned—

—it's a fact, experts are beginning to whisper that the Germans have hit on a cruiser-building system within the Versailles treaty's terms, which nevertheless is making them dangerous on the ocean.

France is starting to worry about it already.

er at the home of Mrs. Helen Hess, Uniontown, shortly before the murder.

Mrs. Hess said that she had met the mother two years ago and agreed to board the child. She did not learn the woman's Pittsburgh address nor why she desired to leave the child in this city.

Miss Margaret Abel, testifying at the inquest, said that she saw a car driven in the direction taken by the alleged slayers, turn into an obscure road. There, Miss Abel testified, she saw part of a baseball bat thrown out of the car which then sped on its way.

The woman testified that the man as the wheel resembled R. C. Bledsoe and that the man beside him looked like Tony Ball. Both men are former county detectives. She fixed the time at about 3 o'clock in the morning.

Several Cute White Rats Owned By Local People

A number of local people have found that white rats make really ideal pets.

A trained white rat is owned by Ted Janoski, nephew of Dr. Janoski, of 107 Terrace avenue. Believe it or not, this rat can carry an egg easily, an ordinary hen's egg. The little rodent can sit up and walk around on its hind legs, sit on a person's shoulder, etc.

Then, Donald Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gill, of Crawford avenue, has a whole family of white rats. These are kept in separate compartments of a large cage. When Donald lets them out, to change the sawdust in their cages, he has quite a scramble to recover his rats, as they all run in different directions.

Another white rat, belonging to a family on North street, made it's home in an upholstered chair. This was a comfortable home for the rat but rather hard on the chair, as it became gradually undermined.

Robert Elton, an actor, who was here several years ago with the Smith-Robertson Stock Company, had, as a pet, a white rat. This rat was named Jerry and always traveled with the actor on his trips. Mr. Elton had for the rat in his room, a regular miniature house instead of a cage.

These rats are smart and clever pets and are not so much trouble as some other ones. Another thing in their favor is they will eat anything, except nails, and seem so contented with their environment.

HOLD HOOVER'S 'FRIEND IN NEED'

DETROIT, Jan. 9.—Donald Henderson the man who loaned President Hoover his raincoat during the presidential visit here last October again claimed the attention of public officials today. This time official interest was aroused by a charge of passing a worthless check for $40.

Henderson was in city hall last October when President Hoover came in soaked to the skin by his ride in the rain. Secret service men asked for the loan of a raincoat and Henderson offered him. The president wore it back in Dearborn.

Henderson was offered sums ranging from $100 to $1,000 for the coat but refused them all.

"I didn't need the money then," he told the police today. "It wasn't long after that though that I was cleaned out in the stock market crash and now I'm broke."

In Henderson's pockets were found a Christmas card from President and Mrs. Hoover and personal letters from the president and Henry Ford, thanking him for the loan of the coat.

The age of discretion is when you realize that people who wish to see you aren't planning to give you anything.

Body Of Edward W. Bok Will Be Interred At Foot Of Great Singing Tower

(International News Service)

LAKE WALES, Fla., Jan. 9.—The beautiful singing tower, known as one of the three distinctively American works of architectural art, will be the lasting monument for Edward William Bok, 67, who died at his winter retreat here early today from an acute heart attack.

The body of its builder, known as a lover of beauty as well as a great editor and a great philanthropist, will be laid at the foot of the Carillon tower here in a specially prepared burial crypt that has been there since the huge structure was finished.

All that is mortal of the Philadelphia will be interred there following brief and simple funeral services at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Of course there have to be hot times in the old Washington town now and then but the thing out't not be taken too literally around the White House and the Capitol.—The Savannah Morning News.

What Price LAZY APPETITE

"Dear, are you not glad you followed my suggestion when I urged you to try S.S.S. for your lost appetite?"

HAVE you an indifference or loathing for food, or do you really enjoy mealtime?

Fads and fancies come and go. We must be reasonable. You can't afford to wreck your body by "killing" an appetite given you by Nature to nourish your body.

You must really enjoy your meals and assimilate them to restore the waste of the body. Don't expect a strong, sturdy body and a keen mind to carry on if you do not enjoy your food. It just can't be done. Friends, happiness and business success may depend on a keen appetite.

Many thousands have turned to S.S.S. when the appetite signaled danger. It is a time-tested remedy—purely vegetable. Easy to assimilate. Pleasant to take. It will do much to restore the

Dangers Seen In Using Radio To Advertise

Medium Will Disgust Public
And Defeat Own Purpose

Head Of Institute Of Engineers Points Out Harms
And Urges Curbing

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Immediate action to curb a tendency toward increased direct advertising in radio broadcasting was urged upon the Institute of Radio Engineers tonight by Dr. Lee DeForest, pioneer inventor.

Addressing the institute as its newly elected president, DeForest said: "The present all too marked tendency of the broadcast chains and of many individual stations to lower their bars to direct advertising, will rapidly work to sap the lifeblood and destroy the greatest usefulness of this magnificent new means of contact."

"I attribute a part of the present slackening in radio sales as actually due to this one cause. The radio public is, I believe, becoming nauseated by the quality of many of the present programs."

Will Defeat Self

He said the members of this institute should take active steps in Washington if need be, to be rid of this killing aviar.

"From this evil," he continued, "the radio manufacturer is already suffering. But the broadcasting agencies will be long feel the effects of this growing policy in the falling off of large numbers of listeners, with resultant loss in advertising."

"This situation can be cured. If we anticipate the day of the international broadcast, you may rest assured that any foreign programs of high class music will be relished in this country in preference to much of the stuff with American audiences are now compelled to hear."

Radio Taps 'Talkies'

In discussing talking pictures, he said: "The amplifier and the loud speaker have recently undertaken to utterly revolutionize the theater. This upset of the Nation's fourth sized industry has come in about one-third of the time which the broadcast industry required to attain its present state. And this time relation expresses in a rough and general way the comparative excellence of the talking picture as compared with the radio—about one-third as good."

Dr. DeForest succeeds Dr. A. Hoyt Taylor of Washington as president of the institute.

Bud Of Romance Fades; Then Bitter Politics Divide Town In Half

LEO R. SCHAEFER

By Central Press.

DEARBORN, Mich., Jan. 9.—A bud of romance which flowered from school days has faded, and the resulting seed is a kernel of political discord that has split this town into factions and may go to Gov. Fred G. Green before it is finally settled.

Meanwhile, Miss Lila M. Neuenfelt, Michigan's first woman justice of the peace, who is still holding that office, is bitterly fighting Leo R. Schaefer, her childhood lover, employer, fiancé, and now political opponent and contemporary justice.

Back in their childhood days, the two were pals when they attended school in the village of Springwells, which later became Dearborn, and recently was annexed to Dearborn. As time went on, Schaefer studied law, was admitted to the bar, and became a justice of the peace. Then he selected Miss Neuenfelt for his clerk. Later he persuaded her to run for justice of the peace and aided her in her first successful campaign for the office. Finally their engagement was announced and published in the society columns of the local newspaper, then owned by Schaefer.

Romance Wrecked.

As to what wrecked the romance and resulted in the breaking of the engagement, there is only gossip, but those who deal in rumor professed to be little surprised when the first open break came recently. Miss Neuenfelt sent her clerk to Justice Schaefer's court for the file in a certain case. Schaefer's clerk refused to surrender the records. Miss Neuenfelt then sent her constable over to arrest Schaefer's clerk for contempt of court.

Friends patched up the difficulties after newspapers had printed a statement from Justice Schaefer saying the case was up for trial in his court and one from Justice Neuenfelt declaring that Schaefer had gotten the files by subterfuge and was stealing cases from her court.

The trouble broke out in a new place. A petition was filed with the city council asking for Justice Schaefer's removal. In 14 closely typewritten pages, the petitioners charged Schaefer had been unfair in the trial of several specific cases, had used and kept liquor, and had acted as an attorney in federal court for bootleggers he had let off with small fines in his court.

The justice was equally verbose in his answer, wherein he characterized all of the charges as a political plot to discredit him and ruin his reputation. He closed his answering statement with the sentence: "Hell hath no fury like Lila scorned."

Three days later Justice Neuenfelt visited the United States district attorney, John R. Watkins, at Detroit, which adjoins Dearborn. Neither the justice nor the federal attorney would comment on the conference, but the next day Miss Neuenfelt admitted the truth of rumors that liquor had been found in her automobile. She declared there were six bottles of whiskey and that fingerprints on the bottles indicated they had been handled by a friend and associate of Justice Schaefer.

Schaefer Strikes Back.

Then came another barrage in the battle, this time fired by Justice Schaefer. He declared the petitions were illegal and should have been filed with the governor and not the city council. He threatened to ask the governor to take the matter up for the purpose of clearing his name. At the same time Schaefer filed suit against the 52 signers of the petition, and particularly against three persons who he claimed were the instigators of the petition. The suit, which did not contain a bill of particulars, asked for $500,000 damages.

So this town, which in its 100 years of existence has been nationally known only as the home of Henry Ford and the site of his motor car factories and aviation field, has found in this battle between Lila and Leo a new set of rumors and gossip that is much more spicy and intriguing than the everlasting news about Ford and his activities.

over $200 he had collected on orders. Frederick refused to heed the order to stop and sped to the store where he told of the attempt.

Manager Frederick, incensed at the attempted hold-up immediately gave chase and overtook the trio whose car had stopped with a punctured tire. One of the men escaped when he saw the determination of the posse. The other two grew combative when questioned and were overcome by the storemen, who turned them over to police.

Cause Of Girl Students

(International News Service)
CAMBRIDGE, Eng., Jan. 9.—The men of Cambridge University Society are championing the cause of the girl students of the University. They have passed a resolution that—"The existing fatuous codes of rules at Newnham and Girton women's colleges should undergo thorough revision."

It was scornfully pointed out by several speakers at the Union that Newnham allowed its girls to attend the theatre with men friends if the party was not of unreasonable size, but the students were permitted to go to King's Chapel unchaperoned.

Fat Men Seldom Criminals, New York Survey Shows

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—If you've aspirations to be a detective, this information might help you in tracing a criminal.

Rarely look for a fat man as the killer in a murder case. Those jovial gents, who possess a kind heart under their excessive chests, rarely are implicated in a killing, figures gathered here show.

It has been discovered that only 2 per cent of the murderers in New York in the past 15 years have been fat men, and that the most ghastly crimes have been committed by those who are thin and devoid of vitamins.

Picture Of Lenin Sold For Frenchman's Taxes

(International News Service)
PARIS, Jan. 9.—M. Edgar Perrand, communist of Montbéliard, small town on the outskirts of Paris, recently refused to pay taxes to the republic government. He was saved by the picture of the man whose doctrines inspired him to refuse payment.

According to the French law, when

Edgar refused to pay his taxes, his property was seized for public auction. The first piece put on sale was his treasured picture of Lenin.

When a friend of Edgar's bid in the picture for 300 francs, the proceeds more than covered the delinquent tax. The sale spread forthwith to the singing of the Internationale by Ferrand and his friends.

(International News Service)
MARSILLAS, Jan. 9.—You can bring suit against the Sultan of Morocco in France as purchasers of the 1804 customs loan, if the Court of Appeals of Aix upholds a decision handed down here.

One bondholder filed an action alleging that the Cheriffian government was not keeping its agreement to pay interest on a gold franc basis regardless of the rate of exchange.

The Sultan's representative objected that since Morocco is a sovereign state a French court is incompetent. The court declared itself competent and placed the suit on the calendar.

President Now Office Tenant Of Army Heads

By ALFRED T. NEWBERRY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—President Hoover finds himself in the position of a landlord forced to share the roof of a tenant he hoped to evict.

Soon after his talks on world peace with J. Ramsay MacDonald, England's premier, the president wrote the War Department he believed its offices should be removed from the State Department to provide more room for the ever-increasing staff of Secretary of State Stimson.

Furthermore Mr. Hoover is a Quaker and he does not idolize warriors. His suggestion that the War Department find other quarters, possibly erect a building for itself some distance from the White House, was seen by some as his desire to rid the neighborhood of the Executive Mansion of the military atmosphere.

War Department Pleased
The War Department greeted the suggestion with figurative cheers. The Navy Department has a building all to itself and the War Department has been yearning for one too. So a committee was appointed to select a suitable site.

But fate, in the form of flames that wrecked the executive offices at the White House Christmas Eve, has placed the peace-loving president directly in the chair and at the very desk, used by Gen. John J. Pershing, the country's noted warrior. And naturally this spacious and elaborately furnished office—previously used by the Secretaries of the Navy—is situated in the midst of those whose duties are to manage the Army and outline its plans of battle in event of war.

Herbert Hoover, whose sole thoughts and dreams are for the success of the five-power conference on naval limitations in London, January 21, who is sincere in his efforts to bring about "Peace On Earth and Good Will To Men," carries on his duties as chief executive with a statue of Gen. Phil Sheridan on one side of his desk. Sheridan is depicted in fighting posture.

Military Portraits
On another side is a statue of Gen. U. S. Grant. Walls of the room of Gen. George Washington, two of General Pershing, one showing him with the late Marshal Foch, the other with Marshal Joffre; and paintings of others of history's men who fought on the field of battle.

Atop a bookcase filled with books describing the World War, the Civil War and other battles Americans participated, stands a bronze tablet showing three members of the American Expeditionary Forces in action.

When Mr. Hoover looks at it; and his eyes must fall upon it during his long hours at his desk, he sees a figure pulling a machine gun. Another in the act of hurling a hand grenade. And the third—the most ferocious of all—is shown lunging forward with a bayonet with teeth exposed.

With the office literally choked full of militaristic objects the President can find a little relief in the small statue of Abraham Lincoln. Somebody placed it there some years ago.

If the bandits bungled things as badly as the police bungled the Rotterdam case the public would lose all respect for them.—The New York Evening Post.

Bo-Broadway by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Henel Brodick, who in "Fifty Million Frenchmen" enacts the role of droll, cynical fur buyer in Paris, says the part has become a strain in private life. Her friends expect her to remain "in character" off the stage.

One of the most discouraging tasks in life is endeavoring to live up to a reputation for wise-cracking.

IN REHEARSAL

The Broadway stenographer never says that her boss is "in conference." Instead, she'll tell you "He is at rehearsal."

Even a stage-struck novice can understand how futile it is to try to "chase" a manager at rehearsal.

BACK TO THE OLD DAYS

Because of the excessive number of theaters now available to attractions—there being no playwrights to give the producers anything to fill their show shop with—Broadway playhouses are acquiring an unwanted variety of amusement. One theater that in past seasons housed many a success is now the temporary show place of a "magician." The engagement, according to the painted three-sheet outside, is limited to two weeks. But it's been many a long day since a "magician" was standard entertainment on Mazda Lane.

IN QUAKER TOWN
Down Philadelphia way, in an alley between Locust and Walnut streets, there's a little circular luncheonroom famous as a rendezvous for wandering Broadway theater folk. The players room in expensive, nearby hotels but, to the despair of Mine Hosts, insist upon striding over at meal time to the Codfish Ball Conservatory in the alley.

Every trouper who has ever been there of course recalls "Mabel"—she of the spun gold tresses. Well, Mabel has been saving her money and word comes that she has bought the Biscuit Bazaar and intends to rechristen it "Mabel's Place."

And if by this time next year Mabel hasn't been married into the "profession" I'll resign my job as oracle.

TAKES COURAGE
Mary Maloney directs the destinies of The Arkady Bake Shop and Luncheon room over on Eleventh avenue. The surroundings are grim. There's a gashouse nearby and an abattoir not far distant.

The cinnamon rolls she dispenses

may be a trifle soggy and her coffee not altogether orthodox. Also, Mary may be slightly off the trail so far as her spelling of "Arcady" is concerned. But her soul is afloat and her heart beats high. It calls for a mighty rare brand of courage to toil all day in the shadow of the Gas-house and chant of Arcady.

Pretty soon, let us hope, Mary may acquire enough pennies to enable her to shake the dust of the city from her poor, tired feet and go meandering out among green fields and running brooks.

ANOTHER STORY

Usually, in a town like New York, you encounter more courage in the roughneck neighborhoods than along the Lovell Levels. Not far from Miss Maloney's bake shop there's a vacant corner store, once a Temple of Bacchus. The windows are tightly boarded and painted red. The front door is padlocked and cross the front is a sign:

"The owner of this place intends to keep it closed until the people of the United States have come to their senses."

The name attached to the notice is "McGuire."

McGuire should be a man worth knowing.

STAGE SECRET

Theaters occasionally note the name "Spelvin" in that of an actor on theater programs. Sometimes George, sometimes John, Frank or Edward Jr., and many have wondered at the sustained talent of the Spelvin family. But it's a spook name. "Spelvin," to the stage-wise, means merely that some actor in the cast is doubling and that the management wishes to conceal the fact.

The Way
OF THE World
By GROVE PATTERSON

GROWING OLD HAPPILY.

We should be happier people if we calmly recognized the fact that we grow old. Instead most of us insist on trying to keep up with youth in its excitement and adventures. Not that one should retire to the chimney corner and rest his chin on a cane—not that. But there is more happiness in maturity, if it is a maturity of the mind and spirit than there is in the upset emotions of youth. Only age can make us grown up in the mind—and that sort of age is even better than youth.

TURN ABOUT.

Youth has heard considerable criticism, some of it coming from the church. Now youth turns about and looks at the church. Youth criticizes its critic. At a Young People's conference in New York the church was indicted on several charges. The church was blamed for failure to abolish corruption and graft in city government, for contenting itself with supporting foreign missionaries while the poor at home suffer from bad housing, for too much denominationalism, for refusing to open basements to the unemployed in winter, for sometimes being guilty of race prejudice, for freezing people out with high brow attitude and failing to provide a pleasant place for lonely people in large cities.

There is much to think about in these charges though they are not entirely just when aimed at the church as a whole. Many churches do successfully the very things that the church as a whole is accused of not doing.

THE SAME FOLKS.

There is no longer any such thing as a country boy or a country girl. Perhaps the most striking result of good roads, fast transportation and other modern improvements is to be found in the disappearance of the type known to an older generation. Unless you travel in districts that are extremely remote and inaccessible you can't tell the difference between the boy and girl in the city and the boy and girl in the small town. Offices and factories are full of young people who have come but lately from country towns. They are not different from their fellow workers who were born in the city. It is a question whether this is entirely a change for the better. There used to be small town characteristics that were especially desirable in the making of good citizenship. There still are and always will be—but it can hardly be said that in this modern day the small town rises to a higher level of behavior than does the city.

IMITATORS.

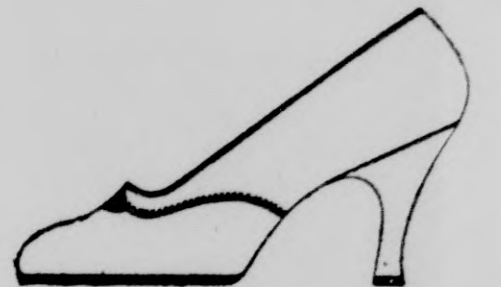

Of all animals men and monkeys are the most tireless imitators. Too bad we so often imitate another's bad or foolish characteristics. Young men imitate older men in their worst qualities. Women who imitate men seem most interested in men's less worthy characteristics.

The Rise of the Automobile

YOU may now put the back-seat driver to sleep—in a trailer attached to your car! One of the most interesting exhibits at the Automobile Show staged at Grand Central Palace, New York City, is a luxurious caravan attached to a sedan car. But what a caravan it is, with more trick gadgets for comfort and convenience than were ever used in even the most luxurious of caravans. The trailer is equipped with four berths, running water, electric lights, and special ventilation apparatus. In fact, it has all the comforts of an up-to-date hotel room. This hotel room on wheels is no wider than an ordinary car, yet the berths used are quite slumber-inducing. Of course, there's a trick to it, and it is that the caravan is so designed that it can be opened accordion-fashion to a width which exceeds that of a railway coach. And so now, a land-cruise can be blithely undertaken, and judging by the interest shown in this new device, it wouldn't be at all surprising, if next Summer, nearly every automobile had a little trailer all its own. It is a far cry from the luxurious car of today to the peculiar looking contraptions that are the grand-daddies of the various different types of automobiles of the present. The early Packards, Oldsmobiles, Buicks and Pierce-Arrows, to mention four of the earliest makes of gasoline-engine vehicles, are unmistakably automobiles for all their rather mirth-provoking appearance. But they went, and that was all that was required of a gasoline contraption in those dim dark days when an automobile costume for ladies meant a long "dust" coat, and a hat with goggles and a thick veil. Henry Ford often refers to his first car, which made successful trial runs in 1893. It was driven by a twin cylinder, four cycle water cooled engine, and it made from 25 to 30 miles an hour. The first of the crop of old-fashioned Fords was manufactured in 1903. Since then, of course, the Ford car has graduated into the popular luxury class. The motor magnate cherishes all the early models of his machine, and proudly claims that they are still in running order. (International Newsreel)

Man Dies As Result Of Rather Mysterious Mishap

Mike Zachak Dies In Hospital
As Result Of Fall

ELLWOOD CITY, Jan. 9.—Mike Zachak, age unknown, died in the local hospital shortly after his admittance at 5:30 today. Death was probably due to a skull fracture suffered when he fell down the cellar stairs of his rooming house.

Police were called to the home of Mike Lipacak on Hillside avenue, where Zachak had a room. According to Mrs. Lipacak's story, Zachak came in about 12 o'clock and seemed to be under the influence of liquor. He sat down in the kitchen and when discovered early this morning he was lying at the foot of the cellar stairs in a pool of blood. The obvious deduction is that he fell down the stairs. X-Rays are being taken of the skull this morning at the hospital in an effort to establish the exact cause of his death. A coroner's inquest will also be conducted.

TEEP FOR TROOP 15

The First Christian church Boy Scout Troop No. 15 held its regular weekly meeting on Tuesday evening at the First Christian church. The meeting was in charge of Scoutmaster Sidney Smith, Assistant Scoutmaster Glenn Montgomery and Committee-man J. E. Rodgers. The opening exercises, consisting of the pledge of allegiance and the scout oath, were led by Scoutmaster Smith.

The painting of the exterior of the troop's new Indian tepee was explained by Paul Mackey as follows: Around the top of the tepee was painted blue, because in nearly all of the tribes the top of the tepee is painted black or blue representing night or day with a red cross in the blue to represent the morning star or in some of the tribes a religious sign.

Below this is an orange circle representing the sun which gives life to all people. Stripes of red, yellow, green were painted around the rainbow for all Indians love beauty. Underneath this a black buffalo's head was painted for most of the food, clothing and shelter of the Indians was taken from the buffalo. Below this, a red pipe was painted to represent in some tribes peace and in others, war. Around the center of the tepee was painted horses and their riders representing the history of some battle of the brave who owns the tepee. Circling the bottom, a yellow band was painted representing the earth and marks representing horse tracks. This tepee will be used next Tuesday evening in the troop's initiation ceremony.

An interesting talk on birds was given by Owen Pentfield Fox. He told what good the birds did for the country and urged the boys to feed and protect them.

Many interesting games were played including the game of letters.

The meeting was closed by the troop singing taps. All scouts wishing to accompany Oscar Patton on a hike Saturday, will meet at the church at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and bring axes with them.

The Silver Fox patrol will hold its weekly meeting at the church on Thursday, January 9, at 7:30 p. m. Scribe, Herbert Rodgers.

State Hospital Doctor Is Slain By Crazy Inmate

Doctor Booth E. Miller, Harrisburg, Attacked And Killed With Razor By Inmate

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 9.—Dr. Booth E. Miller, 45, a member of the staff of the state hospital for the insane and formerly of Indianapolis, was killed instantly Wednesday by Moses Sweet, 50, a crazed inmate of the institution.

Dr. Miller, a specialist in nervous and mental disorders, was walking through the corridors of the hospital when Sweet, who had stealthily followed the physician, leaped on Miller from behind, bore him struggling to the floor and slashed his throat with a razor.

So sudden was the murderous attack that the doctor was unable to drag the crazed man from his victim before he had succeeded in slashing the physician's jugular vein.

Horrified inmates disarmed Sweet and placed him in a strait jacket after a fight that raged up and down the hospital corridors. The slayer had been an inmate of the institution since last June when it was found that he was suffering from a mental disorder. Dr. Miller had been a staff physician and clinical director at the state hospital for three years. He was a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and came to this city from Indianapolis.

Forced To Give Up Work, Man Finds Prompt Relief In New And Different Medicine.

MR. HARRY FINDLAY

"Neuritis forced me to give up my position and remain at home an invalid," said Mr. Harry Findlay, Franklin street, Allentown, Pa. "The agony I suffered from this dread malady is beyond my power to describe. I could not walk without a cane. I gave up my position and remained at home for months at a time. My arms were so swollen that I was all but helpless. My entire system became run down and no medicine or treatment I tried did me any good. I laughed when my friends suggested Konjola. I still laugh, but for quite another reason. This great medicine has done what all others utterly failed to do. In less than a month after taking Konjola neuritis left me. I no longer suffer the frightful pains of this dread ailment. I am well and happy and do my work with pleasure. My general health is better than it was five years ago before I was stricken. What a medicine Konjola is! Konjola is sold in New Castle at Love & Megown drug store, and by all the leading druggists in all towns throughout this entire section."

Americanizing Paris Is Worry For Frenchmen

By ALICE LANGELEIR
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Jan. 9.—Be careful not to let Paris become completely Americanized, warns Maurice de Waleffe in the "Paris Mid." "When the Grands Boulevards become a second Broadway and Montmartre the perfect little Coney Island, the Yankees will go to Egypt or India when they want a change of scene," adds the Frenchman. "How can you expect them to respect French and find it superior when we Frenchmen try to replace it by something else?"

"The more we transform Paris into New York, the less we shall see of the American visitors. As for the rich woman who comes to our capital to buy her lovely robes watch her and you will see that she selects those which answer her inner desires. The dressmaker who flatters this taste will force her to buy a great deal the first year. But the second year, she will not show up. Useless for her to bother to cross the ocean when she can so easily find the same thing in America."

The well known couture houses of the rue de la Paix, and the Champs Elysees are catering to every want of the American woman and several of them even import American mannequins, complains the writer. "Do you think the American tourist is looking for his own country when he comes over here?" he asks. "They don't need to take a boat to hear the talkies, they have all that at home. It is just as though all of our famous chefs would be replaced by Yankee cooks who would put up signs reading: "American cooking here, just like in old New York. Quick lunch service, iced tea, encanore and cold storage meat en serie."

The absurd little wooden dog which is the inseparable companion of one of the famous Fratellini brothers at the Winter Circus in Paris and which is the cause of many a hearty laugh, is of American origin. That is, he is the work of the young American artist, Sandy Calder, of New York, who was asked by the celebrated clown to make him a funny animal. Fratelli says the dog has brought him more laughs than any other accessory he has used in the many years he has been performing.

Mr. Calder is especially well-known in the capital for his wire work. A prominent member of the American colony here has a most remarkable aquarium in wire in her salon, a wonderful thing that really works, a real expression of this young artist's versatility.

With a view to arresting the progress of divorce in France, a well-known Frenchwoman has recently instituted the Prix Berriat Saint-Prix. Madame Felice Berriat Saint-Prix has given to the Academie des Sciences Morales et Politiques twenty-three per cent shares in the P. L. M. railway and sum of four hundred francs to found this prize which will be awarded every five years to the writer of the best book on French divorce laws. It must be written from the point of the restriction of divorce and the maintenance of the family tradition. The steady increase in divorce cases among the French has inspired Madame Berriat Saint-Prix to found this prize.

Mayor Vindicated

Six years ago Mayor Roswell O. Johnson, of Gary, Ind., was sent to Atlanta on a charge of conspiring to violate the dry law. Senate Takes Up Tariff On Sugar

Highly Controversial Sugar Tariff Schedule Up In Senate Today

MAJOR BATTLE IS UNDER WAY

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—After settling a civil war in their own ranks, the Republican leadership plunged the senate into a major tariff battle this afternoon by calling up the highly controversial sugar schedule with its proposal to increase the duties on America's imported sugar supply.

The civil war terminated amicably when Republican leaders placed Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., of Wisconsin and Senator John Thomas, of Idaho, on the powerful senate finance committee, giving the insurgents a "balance of power" in the drafting of tariff, tax and revenue legislation in the senate. There had been threats of serious party dissatisfaction, threatening success of the president's legislative program at this congress and Republican security in the elections next fall. The peace treaty restored peace in the Republican ranks however, only for organizational purposes.

The sugar schedule meanwhile developed the most complicated battle in the whole tariff war. Both parties and the insurgents too were split over the question of rates.

There was a feeling the sugar war would end in the adoption of the Senate finance committee's recommendation of a world duty of $2.75 and a Cuban duty of $2.20 per hundred pounds. This was nearer the House rates of $3 and $2.40 than to the present law of $2.20 and $1.76.

Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, however, carried in his pocket a proposal to pay American sugar producers a bonus direct from the federal treasury. If it carries he will further propose a slight reduction in the existing rates. Administration leaders expected the sugar war to last a week or two.

The treaty of peace, ending the committee assignment war, was negotiated by the Republican committee on committees. At a session this morning it completed all other committee assignments. The committee will make a complete report to a Republican caucus tomorrow, which is expected to promptly ratify the selection of LaFollette for a finance post. There was virtually no other opposition against any other appointment.

Senator Ramsdell (D) of Louisiana led off the sugar debate with an appeal for retention of the House rate of $2.40 a hundred pounds. He said that under the present rate of $1.76 the American sugar industry is depressed and that unless relief is afforded this condition will be aggravated.

Merchant Wounded, Two Bandits Held In Holdup Attempt

Merchant Shot By Thugs When They Fail To Find Safe Or Money In Store

(International News Service) HUNTINGDON, Pa., Jan. 9.—J. C. Appleby, 59, a Mount Union merchant, is in the hospital here today, seriously injured from a bullet wound in his stomach while two men are in jail here, charged with holding up and shooting the merchant.

Appleby was stopped on the street near his store in the neighboring community and ordered by an armed man to take him to the store and open the safe.

He complied with the request, made at the point of a gun, and was shot when the assailant felt after discovering that there was no safe nor money in the store.

Report French Cruiser Sinks

(International News Service) PARIS, Jan. 9.—Despite efforts of a salvage crew to keep her afloat, the French Cruiser Edgar Quinet sank today, the Ministry of Marine announced. No lives were lost.

The cruiser went aground off the coast of Algiers several days ago, ripping a large hole in her side in striking jagged protruding rocks.

Shakespeare had the right idea when he settled his own case in this fashion with the famous epitaph: "Good Friend for Jesus Sake Forbear To Dig the dust enclosed here. Bleste be the man who spares these stones. And Curst be he that moves my bones."

Believe Danger Of Neshannock Creek
Floods Eliminated

Water Is Carried Off Rapidly Since Rosena Dam Has Been Removed

Danger of floods in the low lying Neshannock avenue district are believed to have been eliminated by the removal of the Rosena dam, according to those who have given the matter some thought.

The water in the Neshannock now flows down stream far more rapidly than when the obstruction existed. The water in the stream above that point is several feet lower than when the dam was in place.

When the dam was taken out, a slight fall was left at the spot where the old dam was, and this prevents the ice from freezing solid as was the case when the dam was there. This will enable the ice to pass off far more quickly, it is believed. Those familiar with the situation are anxious to see what actually will happen when the stream becomes frozen over solidly again.

During the last cold spell, the river was practically frozen across, but the ice which had formed moved off quickly when the thaw set in.

Pantela, Mercer County Slayer,
May Offer To Plead To Lesser Charge Is Report

MERCER, Pa., Jan. 9.—Frank Pantela held in the jail here on a murder charge will be arranged at the January sessions approaching on a degree murder charge is the announcement of District Attorney Leo McKay today.

Asked if he would accept a plea to second degree or manslaughter which it is almost certain would be offered as a compromise the officials stated that at the present time from what he knew of the case he would insist on trial.

It is more than just court house gossip that Judge J. A. McLaughry will be asked to appoint an attorney to defend Pantela. He is reported to be without sufficient funds to employ a barrister and is said to be without friends to come to his assistance.

FEWER DOCUMENTS

A summary of the documents filed in the office of the county Prothonotary in 1929 shows a reduction over the 1928 summary which was the record breaking file in office history. During 1929 there were 1718 judgments placed on record which in '28 the number totaled 2227; 1929 developed 815 suits, 1928 totaled 761; there were 382 Municipal Liens filed in 1929 while in '28 the number totaled 693; executions in 1929 summer 361 while the year previous they totaled 394.

Julius Rosenwald And His Bride On Way To European Honeymoon

Multi-Millionaire Chicagoan And His Bride Will Sojourn In Egypt For Two Months

"We Are Very Happy" Tell Newspapers Just Before Boarding Liner Saturnia

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Culminating a romance of the middle ages, Julius Rosenwald, 67-year-old Chicago philanthropist, and his sixty-year-old bride, today were Egypt-bound on a honeymoon holiday.

The bride, the former Mrs. Adelaide Goodkind, is the mother-in-law of Lessing J. Rosenwald, son of the philanthropist. She is the widow of Benjamin Goodkind, merchant of St. Paul, Minn., who died ten years ago.

Are Very Happy
Rosenwald's first wife died last May. Before sailing on the liner Saturnia the multi-millionaire bridegroom said:

"We are very, very happy." The silver-haired bride clung to the arm of her husband and nodded smilingly.

"We expect to be away about two months," said Rosenwald. "We will forget all about business." The bride was dressed in a young-ish-looking black travelling ensemble with a smart black hat to match. She wore a corsage of orchids.

The bridegroom wore a dapper gray overcoat and gray hat and swung a cane jauntily.

A special railroad car brought the bride couple here from Philadelphia where a simple marriage ceremony was performed at the home of Rosenwald's son at Abington, Pa. The children of the couple by their first marriage accompanied them here.

A family wedding dinner was held in New York previous to the sailing of the honeymooners.

Before boarding the boat, the newly-weds posed merrily for the cameras.

"I always did like newspapermen," volunteered the philanthropist, during the process. "They're good boys."

However, he good naturedly evaded such emotional questions as whether he thought love was greater than money and as to his opinion on a formula for matrimonial bliss.

"All I can say is that we are extremely happy," he smiled.

The children of the philanthropist said that their father had been lonely since the death of their mother and that Mrs. Goodkind would make him an "ideal comrade."

Missing Twins Are Reported Found In Pittsburgh Home

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 9.—Joanna and Betty Parks, 16-year-old twins who have been missing from their home here since December 29, were found today, rooming in another part of the city.

The twins, Peabody high school students and well known as amateur dancers, are wards of County Commissioner C. C. McGovern. They will face runaway charges in morals court following the discovery of their "hide-out" which they are alleged to have shared with Miss Anna Frederick, 21.

Some photographers now are "temperamental artists," but others still make portraits that resemble the sitter.

For The Vitamins Only Do We Take Cod Liver Oil

There is no health value to Cod Liver Oil once the precious Vitamins are extracted.

All the power to build strength, energy and vigor lies in the Vitamins and now that a studious chemist has separated them from the oily grease and put them in tablet form, there is no reason on earth why anyone need ever again even look at the outside of a bottle of ill smelling, fishy tasting Cod Liver Oil.

Take your Vitamins straight. Two sugar coated Tablets known to druggists as McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Extract Tablets are equal in Vitamin potency to one full teaspoon of Vitamin tested Cod Liver Oil.

If you take two of these tablets four times a day as directed you will probably get all of Vitamins A and D that your system requires.

You are sure to get them. For every ailment, malady or run-down condition for which Cod Liver Oil is prescribed, McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Extract Tablets are equally as good. We would not be allowed to make this statement if it were not true. Get them at any drugstore—precious but inexpensive. Take your Vitamins straight—60 tablets 60 cents.

Daniell Assumes Important Post

REGINALD A. DANIELL

Reginald A. Daniell, past potentate of Syria Shrine, Pittsburgh, and for over twenty years, an executive of one of Pittsburgh's largest department stores, has resigned his position to accept an important post with the Acacia Mutual Life Association of Washington, D. C. He will have offices at 405 Investment Building, Fourth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. Daniell was potentate when the local Shriners Caravan held a ceremonial in this city about two years ago. He is a resident of Mt. Lebanon and is widely known throughout Western Pennsylvania. It was largely through his efforts that the Syria Temple Auto club was organized. It now numbers several thousand members.

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon and was called to order by the speaker.

The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, Lord God, that the way to Thee is so plain that we need not err. Struggling with human passions and imperfect natures, we praise Thee that through Thy Holy Spirit we may walk our way in the spirit of love and trust. Thou art our refuge in times of adversity and a shield in the moment of temptation. Thus guarded, we would bear testimony of our grateful hearts. Clothe us with patience, increase our power of faith, and give us control of the circumstances which surround us. May we work and dwell together in the unity of confidence and allow distrust and unwise hindrances to pass away. O may mutual trust and good will prevail in this congress. We continue, our Heavenly Father, and pray: Oh, blessed is he who can serenely look back, who works wisely in the present, and who realizes that his real possessions are in the new year, across the threshold of whose temple we have now passed. With the past revealed and facing the future, may we take no counsel of fear, but remember that we have been elevated to a great position of authority. Therefore, by act and example, let our work flame forth over our country and the world for the good and peace of all peoples. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

TURKISH BATH BETTER EXERCISE THAN GOLF

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 9.—The old-fashioned Turkish bath is better exercise than golf, Meredith Nicholson, famous Indiana author, contends in an article in the monthly publication of the Indianapolis Athletic club of which he is a member.

"Golf I consider an evil," Nicholson said. "The human machine should be saved from the wear and tear of the so-called manly sports. A massage intelligently given is better than a whole season of golf."

Business Men To Hold Future Power

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The day is coming when the business men of the world and not the diplomats and politicians will hold the power to prevent war, Matthew Anderson, general manager of Liverpool, Inc., a municipal organization of England's shipping center, predicted at a dinner given him here by the Washington Board of Trade.

He explained the expansion of various concerns into other countries and declared within another decade the business interests of the world would find themselves "fighting themselves" should a war be declared.

Edward L. Bacher, chief of the foreign commerce service of the Department of Commerce, said the practice of American manufacturers in establishing branch plants in foreign countries was not to take advantage of cheap labor.

He said maintenance of such plants was to promote the local sales market and cope with the general public sentiment that people should give preference to domestic made goods.

ment of Indian boys and girls in various capacities in hotels, lodges, transportation systems and stores of the parks, stating such employment would help considerably to put the Indians on their feet and provide for better assimilation in the industrial and economic fabric of the country.

LaVatta said he broached the subject of Indian employment to the government following his graduation from Carlisle 13 years ago. "They refused to take the proposition seriously," he said "thinking I was just a young radical. To prove my point I obtained employment myself as a roustabout in the shops of one of the big trans-continental railroads.

"After a month or two I urged employment of another Indian and finally persuaded the foreman to take him on. Then I tried to get a third man on but the foreman was obdurate. He said Indians were poor laborers. But I insisted and he gave another Indian boy a job telling me that if he failed no member of my race would ever be employed by him again.

The boy made good and now many Indians work for the railroad and are among its most loyal employees."

The solution to the Indian problem LaVatta says is getting the Indian girls and boys out in the world and making them work.

Because of the great increase of attendance at the Royal Horse Show in Dublin, Ireland, this year, the grounds are to be materially enlarged.

Wanio-Rowe Star For New Castle

Wanio Cages Five Field Goals In Easy Win Over Washington High

Washington High Is Fourth Team To Be Defeated By Local High Team

By CHARLES LANDOLF
(Special News Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Pa., Jan. 9.—Bringing a team here Wednesday night that took little time getting accustomed to the court, New Castle high school basketball team had little trouble registering their fourth win of the season when they defeated the Washington high quintet 38-13.

New Castle took the lead a few minutes after the game started and maintained it throughout the contest.

Francis Wanio and Luther Rowe featured the game for New Castle. Wanio scored five field goals and scored three out of four fouls. Rowe tallied twice from the court and played a good defensive game.

Play Fine Defensive Game.
The Lawrence countians were too big and a little better than the Washington lads who look promising. They are very fast. After the first few minutes of play New Castle used the defense that has balked the three defeated teams so far this season so intensively that at the end of the first half only one field goal had been chalked up for the losers.

Washington used man for man defense which proved to the liking of the boys from Pa. New's domain. In the third quarter New Castle opened an attack on that defense which netted 14 points. In the second quarter New Castle scored 12 points. In the first half Wanio, Rowe and Uram were responsible for 14 of the 19 points. Alexander and McAuley played a good defensive game during this half as did the remainder of the quintet.

Coach Bridenbaugh started a new combination on the floor last night. Luther Rowe started instead of Francis Wanio. Aside from the two baskets he made several good passes to his teammates which resulted in field goals. He played a good defensive game.

Game Under Way.
The game started with Anderson of Washington caging a field goal on the first ten seconds of play but did not count due to running with the ball. Hannon made a foul of two tries to give New Castle a one-point lead.

Hannon followed this by caging the first goal of the game by dribbling by the side of the court. Alexander had a chance to give the red and black crew two more points but failed when he was given two fouls. Graff made the first basket for the Washington lads to bring the count to 3-2 in favor of New Castle. Nickie Uram made a good shot from the center as the first quarter ended. Score, New Castle 7, Washington 2.

Half Ends, 19-4.
Uram annexed another field goal to his credit when he caged another on a follow up shot. At this time Wanio replaced Hannon. He brought the count to 11-2 on a side shot. Graff made good a foul for Washington. Alexander and Wanio made two goals in succession. The half ended with McAuley and Rowe caging two baskets. Score, New Castle 19, Washington 4.

The third quarter was the same as the second with New Castle scoring. Wanio, Alexander, McAuley and Uram at the start of the third quarter flashed a fast attack which resulted in four baskets in rapid succession. Wanio contributed three more in this stanza and McAuley one more for New Castle's points. Loucks made one for Washington. Score, New Castle 33, Washington 8. Loucks also made two fouls.

The final quarter saw many New Castle stars in the game. McKissick, Winter, Thomas and McIntosh saw action in the game. New Castle made one field goal in this quarter and three fouls. Hannon made the two-point tally. Washington made two fouls and a field goal by Murphy.

Locals Undeatable To Date.
The whole New Castle team played a good game while Anderson, Graff and Murphy were the best for the losers. As a result of the win, New Castle remains undefeated to date.

LONG GLOVES ARE BACK AGAIN

Perotta, Midway Hope For 'Kayo'

Local Middleweight Rivals Training Hard For Monday's Battle

WEST AND FIRPO IN MAIN ENCOUNTER

ED FRITZ

George Perotta who was the city's best middleweight several years ago hopes to regain some of his former prestige when he battles Joe Midway in a six round semifinal to the Henry Firpo-Tiger West bout listed for ten rounds at Jolly bowl, Monday night.

Perotta runs each morning and in the afternoon cuffs several training partners around a local gymnasium. In addition he goes through other preparatory work to condition him for the coming bout. George hits good with either hand and has more experience than Midway.

On the other hand Midway has youth, plenty of vitality and his right hand is as strong as that of Perotta. He believes that Perotta has slipped so far that all he will have to do is beat Perotta to the punch and sand in a corner while the referee tolls off the fatal ten seconds.

It would not be surprising were both middleweights to rush from their corners, commence swinging and the first to land on the chin be returned the victor. A large crowd of Perotta's former admirers will return to see him fight Midway.

Farone Vs. Hardy
Tiger West is sarring daily with Lee Sala, Tommy Heilman and Howard Mayberry and expects to beat Henry Firpo. West has arrived at Monessen, Pa., and will appear in Pittsburgh should he win over Firpo. The Louisville middleweight is training at Cleveland.

Jack White, manager of Paul Balin, today advised Jolly bowl attaches that a prior contract will prevent Paul boxing Buz Hardy in a return bout. White said that two weeks ago he had signed Balin to appear at Motor Square Garden, Pittsburgh and therefore said Paul could not appear here Monday.

Al Farone, a good preliminary featherweight of Pittsburgh was immediately carded against Hardy who has a big hold on Beaver Falls fans. He has appeared here twice. He scored a four round victory and a knockout in one round. He is to be accompanied here by a good crowd from Beaver Falls.

Game Is Second In W. P. I. A. L.; Locals Are Undefeated To Date

New Castle high basketball team will be pitted against a much better team than they encountered at Washington Pa., on Wednesday night when they play their second W. P. I. A. L. contest with Zelenople high at senior high gym at 8:15 on Friday.

In a preliminary game which starts at 7:15 the New Castle high girls team will inaugurate the floor season against the Alumni. Both games are expected to be fast with a large crowd greeting the boys team who have won every game so far this season and are playing their first league game here.

Dempsey Says He Is Not Through

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 9.—Jack Dempsey's assertion that while he is not ready to fight right now he is not "through yet" was presented to the sports world today.

"Abe" Conley In Select Circle Of 300 Tenpin Bowlers

New Castle Man Away Back In 1906 Rolled 300 In Tens In Match Game

A very good friend called this yawning, and told us that M. A. "Mike" Mauser of Hubbard, O., was not the first man to roll 300 in tenpins in New Castle.

The informant said that Abe Conley of Hamilton street, away back in 1906, before girls bobbed their hair, and we had radios, or "squawks," was bowling with the New Castle Works in a match game with the Standard Steel Car company team, and that his score was 300. Well, that's fine, that makes one New Castle man eligible for membership in the All-Three-Hundred American bowling team.

The game was rolled on the Neshannock avenue alleys. Don't know whether or not "Abe" got $35.00 for doing so nicely or not, but he should have.

Are there anymore 300 scores lurking in our midst?

Shires To Face Michigan Boxing Commission Today

(International News Service)
LANSING, Mich., Jan. 9.—Charles Arthur "The Great" Shires has another victory to conquer before he vindicates himself before the eyes of the sporting world.

Having been exonerated of all charges by the Illinois boxing commission, Shires now is scheduled to face the Michigan branch of that sport here today to answer charges that an attempt was made to fix his scheduled fight with Battling Criss in Detroit, January 1.

Vandies Gildersleeve, manager of Criss, has sworn to statement that he was approached by Manager Benny Ray and John "Scotty" Strachan in his Rockwood home and told that Criss had to go in the tank for Shires.

Gildersleeve admits he never met Shires or his manager but "The Great Man" was suspended by the Michigan commission, nevertheless.

Dave Knight, Detroit manager of boxers, also has been summoned to appear before the commission on the Shire-Criss business. Dave formerly managed Tiny Groves but says he didn't have anything to do with the Shires thing and can't understand why he has been called.

There is a Michigan law regarding the fixing or attempted fixing of baseball games, boxing bouts, and other sports. It provides for a maximum fine of $5,000 or five years in jail or both. James M. Brown, chairman of the commission, last night refused to say whether or not anybody would be prosecuted under the law. He stated the commission would make up its mind on the matter following today's hearing.

The Norton coached machine used a five-man defense, and East Brook used a man-for-man defense. It was a well played game, with the East Brook boys a little superior in their offensive attack.

SORDS POINTS

Sport Too Much Fun; Can't Quit

By JACK SORDS
Central Press Sports Cartoonist-Writer

He's got a million or more in nice, round American dollars, he's well past the half-century mark in age and he's seen almost four decades of wrestling, but you can't get Stanislaus Zbyszko to quit.

Sport fans like to talk about the iron men of the diamond, the aging stalwarts of the ring, the graying veterans of the sun-bathed fairways, but all these have no record quite like that of the elder Zbyszko.

Stanislaus is still active on the mat today because, he says, the game is in his blood. After 2,000 tussles he is still eager for the miniature warfare of one man's great muscles pitted against another—the first form of combat—the battle of bare hands against bare hands.

Wampum Hi Stars Victor In Games

Defeat Central Christians Of New Castle And Ellwood Whippet Team

The Wampum high stars took an easy victory from the Central Christians of New Castle, by a score of 50 to 6 in a game played at Wampum last night.

The Stars kept the church crew from scoring any baskets, their six points being made via foul route.

The Stars also took another surprising victory on Wednesday when they defeated the Ellwood Whippets by a 24-22 score. The Whippets were leading in the first half of play but failed to continue their winning stride after the opening of the third quarter, when Wampum jumped ahead.

Basketball Player Fatally Stricken

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—Heart trouble was attributed today as the cause of death here last night of Harry Becker during a basketball game of the E. G. Budd Industrial League.

Becker was a member of the Shears team which was playing the drafters, he collapsed after the game had gone about seven minutes. His team mates carried him from the floor and when a physician pronounced him dead the game was called off.

Zbyszko has won and lost the world's heavyweight wrestling title twice. The first time he won it from Ed Lewis, who bears the grim tag of The Strangler. Stanislaus was past 50! That was in 1923.

Lewis won the title from him but the Ponderous Pole again scaled the heights when he threw Wayne (Big) Munn for the crown in 1925, winning two falls in 12 minutes, a title match record. Later Joe Stecher gained the title from Zbyszko.

Zbyszko owns a building in New York, a hotel in Old Orchard, Me., and property in Florida, besides plenty of pit-edged bonds. His brother Wladek, also somewhat of a mat star, once said Stanislaus could lose a million dollars and still be a millionaire.

The elder Zbyszko is in perfect health and can "lick" almost any man half his age.

Miss Sonja Henie is here from Norway to show Uncle Sam's relatives how to cut up ice.

Sonja is a figure skater, which means she can sign her name with her heels and a pair of skates.

Sonja could make big money by putting trade marks on cakes of ice.

Spectators watching Sonja do her stuff come away with a lesson in penmanship.

Maybe the reason Norway is still a monarchy is because the kings are frozen to their thrones.

Miss Henie may go home soon. She wants to escape the February heat waves.

Reiselt-Layton Are Deadlocked

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Otto Reiselt and Johnny Layton, defending champion, today were tied for the lead in the world's three-cushion championship tournament, each having won five matches and lost one.

The deadlock is a result of Layton's victory last night over Allen Hall, 50 to 35, and Reiselt's defeat at the hands of Gus Copulos, 50 to 48. In winning, Copulos equaled the world's championship tournament high-run mark of 17.

Mercer Quintet Seek Floor Game

Mr. Patterson of the Mercer Whippets basketball team would like to have a game abroad for next Monday or Wednesday night, he said this morning. The Whippets can assure any team of a first class attraction. They are composed of former college stars. For games call Mercer 86-J during the day, or 67 at night.

Single Men Are Too Clever For Married Swains

Delta Phi Sigma Men, Single And Married Play Basketball; Score 28-16

The age-old dispute regarding basketball supremacy in the Delta Phi Sigma house at New Wilmington was settled Wednesday afternoon when the "Married" men were defeated by the "Single" men 28 to 16 in a game more exciting than the score would indicate.

The imbroglio was featured by the appearance in the lineup of other than "Chunkie" Miller 250 pound coach for the "Single" men. Miller's scintillating brand of basketball was the sensation of the afternoon.

"Chap" Boone, football captain and several other football luminaries, Pipoly, Michaels, Hall and Merriam took part in the fray. Unfortunately members of the fair sex were ejected from the gym.

While the peddling of alibis was not in evidence it was generally admitted that the domestic duties of the "Married" men had left them in poor physical condition to stack up against such a crowd of young Atlases as the bachelors had as representation.

Kandy Kids Win From Frisco Five

The Wampus Kandy Kids won their 13th game out of 15 starts by taking over the much heralded Frisco "5" on the Wampus floor to the tune of 33 to 17. Frisco, being rated on an even basis with the Wampus team, never showed signs of even being dangerous throughout the game and only the fact that the Kandy Kids had an off night on short shots kept the score from being about double.

The teamwork of the Wampus team was marvelous but the "Kids" missed shot after shot under the hoop. Frisco was on the short end of a 5 to 3 score at the end of the first quarter and this was the closest they could get to the Wampus aggregation. Of the seven field goals registered by the Frisco "5", only one was made under the hoop. With the opening of the last quarter, Frisco crept to within three points of the locals but the Wampus team swept down the floor time after time, registering seven buckets to put the game on ice.

Connelly was the whole team for Frisco, caging five buckets via the center of the floor. For the Wampus team, the only player to feature was Ferrucci, who time after time broke up plays that were sure to score.

Next Tuesday the Sherman club of Pittsburgh, junior champs of the Smoky City, will oppose the Kids on the Wampus floor. This promises to be one of the best attractions of the year as the Pittsburgh aggregation boasts of 45 wins out of 49 games played during the last season.

Coke Production Shows Yearly Gain

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 9.—Beehive coke production in the Connelville district was 3,980,760 tons in 1929, a gain of 1,375,000 tons over the 1928 production, according to the review of the trade here.

Peak production in 1929 was reached the week of June 15, when a total of 110,450 tons were made. That total was nearly twice the weekly production during the first part of the year and three times that the year-end output when the figure fell to 33,240 tons.

The current year opened with further reduction in tonnage to 24,410 tons, with little indication of a revival during the first quarter.

Spot coke demand remains fairly steady with the price at $2.60 to $2.75 for furnace and $3.75 to $4.25 for foundry of standard grade.

Athletic Aces, Assuredly!

A survey of 1929 track and field athletics reveals several notable achievements, some high lights of which inspire "The Sport Bug's" graphic muse as pugilistic intelligentsia might aptly phrase it. The sprints, the shotput, and the discus throw were—and are—well personified by Eddie Tolon, Herman Brix and Eric Krenz respectively. These stars were positive standouts in their fields for 1929.

The rather squat, very muscular and dusky Tolon—flying the University of Michigan colors—won both the 100 and 220 U. S. dash championships in the senior national meet at Denver, July 4, and at Evanston, Ill., on May 25, he tied the world's recognized record for the 100 when he beat George Simpson of Ohio State in and eyelash finish. Time: 09.5.

During the year, Simpson did that dash in 9 2-5 seconds but, owing to his use of starting blocks, that new world's record is seriously questioned.

Others who vied with Tolon in equaling the old 9 3-5 record during 1929 were Charley Borah, the Southern California veteran; Frank Wyckoff, of Glendale Junior College; and Emmett Topping of Loyola. Jack Elder of Notre Dame, Aubrey Bracey of Rice Institute, and Percy Williams of Canada also featured in many records—approaching sprints.

However, a study of the 1929 dash records indicates that "Michigan's Black Blitz"—stocky Eddie Tolon—was the best all-round sprinter in the United States, if not in the world during the year. And this studious Sam Langford of the cinder paths will try to repeat in 1930.

"Herm" Brix of the Los Angeles A. C. made two new world's records with both the eight and sixteen pound shots—87 11 1-2 inches with the former; 51 11 5-8 with the latter.

Of course, the most extraordinary heaving feat was that of Eric Krenz of Stanford, who tossed the discus 163 feet, 8 3-4 inches.

Surely 1929 brought forth some mighty athletes whose deeds will make the future say: "There were giants in those days."

Three Are Dead In Atlanta Shooting By Demented Man

Former Husband Brooding Over Wife Kills Her, Together With Her Husband; Suicides

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 9.—Brooding over a woman who divorced him in 1928, John Ernest Barnett 34, today lies dead in a local morgue and beside him lay the bodies of his rash killing Mrs. Doris Elizabeth Mason, 26 and her husband George Mason 31.

Barnett staged the fatal shootings after several days of deliberation with himself. He encountered the happy couple on their way to work. He drove his machine up along side the Mason car. Jumping out of his machine (he Barnett) fired a volley of shots into the Mason car killing the woman and man. He then turned the gun on himself and ended his life.

In a death note left by the temporarily insane former husband he said he intended to kill his wife and that anybody else with her at the time may also die. The Barnetts were married October 1924 and divorced in April, 1928. She married Mason in July 1929.

Automobile production would have fallen off next year, anyway. A lot of grade crossings have been eliminated.

TRIO OF WEDDED TENNIS STARS

If the former Helen Wills, now Mrs. Frederick Moody, follows the precedent set by other tennis queens she will not permit marriage to interfere with acquiring further fame on the courts. Mrs. George W. Wightman and Mrs. Molla Mallory added greatly to their tennis renown after they were married.

Spends Twenty Years In Writing Book That Few Persons Can Read

By Central Press
PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 9.—Here's a man who has been 20 years writing a book, which, when published soon by the Carnegie Institution of Washington, will be undecipherable by the average man.

Prof. Frederick H. Seares, associate director of the famed Mt. Wilson observatory, is the author. The volume consists of notations and figures concerning nearly 70,000 stars situated so far away they can be observed only with high-powered telescopes.

Not only has Prof. Seares studied his large number of stars, but he has made photographs of them.

To what end?

PROFESSOR FREDERICK SEARES

Reasons for Photographs

To get some better idea of how many stars there are in the system to which his world belongs, to learn whether stars are scattered through space in some regular order, to determine their brightness in order that the determination of brightness of stars observed in the future may be made easier.

His method of studying the stars is of little importance. It consisted rather briefly in photographing their light. His conclusions are of more consequence.

His principle conclusion is that the so-called "local system" of stars surrounding the sun consists not of a few hundred stars but of many millions.

And he found further evidence which, while pointing toward a definite limit for the universe, indicated the universe is more far flung than older astronomers thought.

And he has observed, also, that the observable stars are not formed in a gigantic ball, but rather take the shape of a round roll or bun, broader than tall.

Nearly 70,000 Stars

By actual count, Prof. Seares has measured the light of 67,941 stars. How far away in miles they may be to one knows. Astronomers measure celestial distances by magnitudes.

Stock Market Buoyant Today

United States Steel Sells At $170 Today On Favorable Forecast Of Tonnage

(BULLISH)
By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Both in the early volume of trading and in the buoyant movement of prices in all but a few important sections of the market, today's session was a slight improvement over yesterday's. Encouraged by the ability of the market to hold firmly in the face of repeated bear raids and liquidations over the past few days, the Bulls marked up prices on the active steel, utility, copper and other shares, in some of which net gains of 3 to 6 points were recorded. Trading increased about 100,000 shares an hour over yesterday and brokers' houses were a little better pleased with the demand for stocks from outside sources.

As a group the public utility stocks were in the best favor with outside speculators. There have been so many "false starts" in the copper, oil and other well-known shares that many traders have placed them on the black list, temporarily at least, from the technical stock market standpoint, these stocks are unusually strong, and ready to respond quickly to the favorable developments in their industries.

United States Steel sold at $170 a share today on favorable forecasts of the volume of unfilled tonnage to be shown in tomorrow's monthly report. Bethlehem Steel at 95 1/2 was up about 10 points from its recent low, and at the highest price level of the year to date. American and Foreign Power and Consolidated Gas were the leaders in the upturn, the utility stocks and sold about 2 points higher. The action of the money market was about the same as in the last two sessions, call money renewing at 4 1/2 per cent and dropping to 4 per cent at mid-day.

More than 420 tons of garbage were collected and burned at the city incinerator during December, according to a report of Howard Phillips, superintendent, which is to be delivered to council. One hundred loads were hauled away by private trucks and 200 barrels removed by other persons.

Fruit Growers' Annual Meeting Continues Today

Wednesday Program Interesting One; Meeting Well Attended By Members

Great interest was manifested at the Horticultural School program given Wednesday at the Y. M. C. A., under the auspices of the Lawrence County Agriculture Extension Association and the Lawrence County Fruit Growers Association.

The program is being continued today, from 10 o'clock this morning to 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Wednesday, J. L. McCartney, a fruit specialist of State College, gave an interesting talk in the morning, from 10:00 to 11:00. R. U. Ruef, fruit specialist of State College, spoke to the association from 11:00 to 12:00, on "Orchard Fertility."

The annual banquet took place at noon, in the Y. M. C. A. dining room, in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Lawrence County Fruit Growers' Association. R. W. Reese, of Rochester, N. Y., was the speaker during the noon meeting. Thirty-five members were present at the banquet.

The day's program was closed by a demonstration meeting at the orchard of M. M. Ingham, three miles northeast of New Castle, on the Neshaunock road. J. U. Ruef and J. L. McCartney conducted the demonstrations, which were of great interest to the members.

Thieves Enter Store During The Night

S. M. Reardon reported to the police this morning that thieves had been in the store of Reardon and Matthews on East Washington street, during the night.

Officers Lockard and Llewellyn answered the first call and made the preliminary inspection. They found that $1 in change and two or three bricks of cheese had been taken.

Entrance was gained through a cellar window into the basement. Entrance into the store from the basement was gained by boring holes about the lock of the door between the two places.

Detective C. G. Logan and Officer Charles Longstreth completed the investigation later today and report that the indications are that the thieves who frightened away before they had accomplished their complete purpose.

Find Liquor And Owner Is Arrested

Two five gallon cans filled with moonshine were found hidden under the floor of his garage last night about eleven o'clock, when the home of John Davis, 1202 Scioto street, was visited with a search warrant by Lieutenant of Police Hillers, and Officers J. Young, M. J. Young, Moore, Thomas and Constable Leslie.

This morning, Davis was taken before Alderman O. H. P. Green where a charge of violating the Snyder Act was made by Chief of Police C. C. Horner. Davis furnished bail for his appearance at a hearing to be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

For cutting off portions of the tails of their donkeys with a penknife, three men were fined $25 and costs each at Llangennith, Wales.

ROAMING With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

The young lady who suggested this is a stenographer. A very good stenographer I imagine, for she has handled the office work of a busy law firm for many years. Her complaint seems to have some merit and because she suggested that this column mention, here it is. Says she, "it does seem to me that married women who take their youngsters shopping could get home a little before the evening street car rush. They wait until the stores and offices are out, pile onto the street cars with the youngsters, and a lot of us have to stand after doing eight hours downtown. If they would go home a little sooner they would have more room and so would we."

So there it is. Perhaps some of the married women hadn't thought about that angle of it, and perhaps after they read the young lady's suggestion they may do something about it. And then again they may not, but the promise made to the young lady is kept.

Tom McMahon claims that he knows a Caledonian who is collecting all the 1929 license plates he can find. It seems that he wants to shingle his roof.

This man Hanlon of the New Castle Motor club can think up more ways of being unpleasant. In the past week he has sent me two letters. One advising me that the 1930 Motor club fee is due, and the other that it is time to make out income tax returns.

It seems that the woman and two men who stuck up that store in Butler on December 27 had a little feeling. Not much, but a little. When they were sticking the gag into the customer's mouth, he asked them if they would mind taking out his false teeth. The lady (?) did. But her subsequent actions proved her anything but a lady. What my grandmother would have called a "brazen hussy".

Delaware avenue residents are considering asking for a special hunting season for their street. Most any night you can see a rabbit or two hot footing it across the street to get out of the road of an automobile, and the woods back of the avenue must be filled with the cotton tails.

The funniest evening sight seen in a while was on Highland avenue a few nights ago. A large gray rat, bent on saving his life was tearing across the street, with a big cat only a leap behind him. Neither one paid any attention to the automobiles passing, and barely missed getting their everlasting.

The annual crop of sunshine cards is beginning to come in. Cards from Florida showing dignified palm trees and azure blue waves, and sweet young things running around in what pass for bathing suits. And then those cards from the West Coast showing Spanish bungalows set back in the hills, with roses blooming all around them.

Sometimes I wonder if the cards are sent out of a desire to be friendly or a desire to make one envious of the winter months here in the east. And to the ones already received will be a flock more sent by fellows like Rex Patch who will send a card from St. Petersburg or Crocodile Beach or some other resort with that original inscription, "having a good time, wish you were here."

About the only retail card one should send to those lads is to get a picture of the county jail, and use the same inscription.

If all the southern and western postcards sent back to the east in winter, were laid end to end, they would make a highway covering that would reach clear beyond Key West.

Fire Discovered At Furniture Store

Firemen were called to the store of the New York Supply Co. at 355 East Washington street, at 7:45 this morning by an alarm from Box 31.

Firemen arriving on the scene found a small blaze in the rear part of the store, the origin of which was not determined. Several chairs were damaged and some of the stock was slightly damaged by smoke. The loss will not exceed $50, it is believed.

GROUP OF GAMBLERS ARRESTED BY POLICE

Lieutenant Hillers and a group of officers, 24 North Beaver street, when they found gambling in progress there.

Stanos and ten visitors were arrested. Stanos put up a forfeit of $25 as keeper of a disorderly house, while the visitors put up $10 each as visitors in a disorderly house.

All failed to appear for a hearing before the mayor this morning and as a result the city treasury is enriched.

RUBBISH COLLECTOR ARRESTED BY POLICE

Charles Robinson, colored, was arrested this morning by the police at a local store, where he is alleged to have stolen foodstuffs, while collecting rubbish at this place. He was turned over to Alderman Walter T. Hamilton, where a charge of larceny has been made against him by the proprietor of the store.

DOG OWNERS SLOW In Getting 1930 License Permits

With Only Six Days Remaining Estimated That 6000 Dogs Have No License

Although there are supposed to be nearly 7,000 dogs in Lawrence county, only 805 dog licenses have been taken out so far this year, according to County Treasurer Adda M. Smiley. Under the law all dogs must be licensed by January 15th, so that around 6,000 licenses will have to be taken out in less than a week if the owners of dogs have any desire to insure their safety.

Last year there were 6,918 licenses issued, a much larger percentage of which were issued before this date. Indications are that there is going to be an unusual rush at the county treasurer's office during the last two days, and the chances are that those who have been putting off getting licenses will have a long wait standing in line.

Treasurer Smiley reports that she has also received 1930 fishing licenses.
